LOCALS

Mrs. Roy Pearson and daughter Jean made a visit to Virginia recently to visit relatives.

Mrs. T. J. Means left Sunday evening for a few days visit in Portland with her parents.

Mrs. Carrie Beitel was able to leave the Hermiston General hospital Wednesday after spending several days there.

Mrs. Walpole was a patient at the Hermiston hospital Wednesday.

Capt. and Mrs. William Purvis returned Wednesday from a ten day vacation at Walport, Oregon, to visit at the home of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor.

Corp. Rita Du Puis of Petaluma, Calif., spent several days at the home of her aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor.

Miss Bonnie Brown and W. H. Brown of Salem spent the week end with friends here. They formerly made their home in Hermiston.

Jess Baker, who recently left for Boise, Idaho, for induction into the U. S. Army, is now stationed at Ft. Douglas, Utah, according to word received here by Mrs. Baker. Mrs. Baker is employed at Saylor's clothing store.

Barbara Thomas, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thomas of Salem, passed away at her home April 17. She is also survived by one brother, Donald; one sister, Shirley, both of Salem, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sale of Stanfield.

Mrs. Shinkle is a patient in the Hermiston General hospital.

Miss Ruth Means spent the week end in Hermiston with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Means, returning to college Sunday evening.

Mrs. Elmira Harvey left Thursday (today) for Seattle to spend a few days visiting her mother. Mrs. Harvey is a nurse at the Hermiston General hospital.

Mrs. Ernest Skinner and baby son returned to their home Wednesday from the Hermiston General hospital.

Word has been received here that Miss Grace Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pearson, was married to Wayne Spencer of Caldwell, Idaho, April 10.

Mrs. H. D. Howe of Portland returned to her home Saturday after having spent the week visiting with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown announce the arrival of a baby son Lawrence Ivan, weighing 5 pounds born Monday at the Hermiston General hospital.

Karen Spencer, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Spencer, fell and broke her collar bone Saturday. It was necessary to have it put in a cast.

Pvt. Ted Hodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olyn Hodge, returned Sunday to Port Ord, Calif., following a furlough spent here. He recently completed training with U. S. Infantry. Pvt. Hodge lost little time while in Hermiston, working with the milk route every day.

A birthday party, honoring Miss Arlene Hooker, was enjoyed at the A. M. Hooker farm Sunday afternoon by the following young people: Barbara, Janet and Suzie Jones, Lloyd and Leonard McRoberts, Jimmy Casper, Patty Hammack, and Dale and Arlene Hooker. After the party a 4-H Victory Garden meeting was held and a rabbit club organized.

Miss Annie Lindsay has resigned her position as bookkeeper at the office of the Umatilla Electric Cooperative association. At present she is visiting in Hoquiam, Wash., and later intends to make a trip east with her mother, Mrs. Dan Lindsay.

Harold Neill, Ordnance 1/c, U. S. Navy, arrived home April 19 to spend until May 7 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill, and other relatives. Harold has experienced many of the thrills of the present conflict but has come through unharmed.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wolley and family and Miss Jessie Brierley made a trip to the valley over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Woolley visited in Forest Grove and Portland while Miss Brierley attended to business matters in Portland. They report that the valley is very pretty this time of the year.

Miss Noreen Townsend, who recently returned to Hermiston following several months spent in California where she was employed, expects to resume work at the First National Bank the first of the month. She spent the past week end visiting friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Neill were pleased to receive a telephone call and a telegram this week from their son, Corp. Ralph Neill, from San Francisco where he arrived last week. Ralph was wounded February 6 at Manila and his left arm is still in a cast but he is getting along nicely. He was returned home on a hospital ship.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bartlett returned this week following a 21, day trip which took them east as far as St. Marys, Ohio, where Mrs. Bartlett visited relatives. Mr. Bartlett visited his mother at Ord, Neb., and other relatives in Omaha and Lincoln, Neb. They report that they were greeted with wintry weather at all places, even experiencing a real blizzard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson moved last week to La Grande where they have leased a Union Oil Co. station. Lynn, who has been working at the Red & White store here, had planned to open an airport in Hermiston but new plans, of course, will prevent this. Mrs. Anderson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Hermiston.

Visitors here this week are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKenzie and two children, Mary Alice and Gerald Jr., of Richmond, Va. They were called west by the serious illness of Mrs. McKenzie's mother, Mrs. J. E. Dove of Portland. Mr. McKenzie is employed in a patent office in Richmond, having followed that business for the past seven years. They are staying here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McKenzie.
