TRAILDUSTERS HAVE TRAIL DAY

The Traildusters Trail Day, first spring event of the Hermiston riding club, was held last Sunday at the George Attebury ranch at Stanfield. The Traildusters were hosts to the Pendleton Mustangs and the Athena riding club. During the morning a cowboy breakfast was served to about 150 people, and around 200 enjoyed the saddle horse and western events in the afternoon.

In the three gaited saddle horse class, singles, Mrs. Roy Harris won first and Miss Margie McKee second, both from Pendleton. In the three gaited pairs, Herb Thompson and daughter Mrs. Harold Reichenberg, from Pendleton, won first and Mrs. Marg Myrick and Bud Bliss second. In the five gaited saddle horse class there was only one entry, Mrs. Roy Harris, and she gave a fine exhibition of her exceptionally well trained horse, Duke.

Harvey Matlock of Pendleton placed first in calf roping, time of 15:2-5; Art Hughes of Heppner, second, time 17:3-5. In sack roping, Vern Tergeson, Pendleton, was first and Dale Gray, second. John Hodgins of Athena was first in the boot race, with Chuck Johnson a close second. In the Bronc riding contest John Hodgins and Chuck Johnson tied for first.

Ravella Lieuallen, Harlan McCurdy and Jess Snead were judges for the show.

C. E. Party Enjoyed

Last Friday evening the Christian Endeavor of the Central Church of Christ had a party at the Christian Church parsonage. About fifteen members and friends were in attendance. Every one participated in outside games until darkness, and then went inside for further games and entertainment. One feature of the evening was a Bible contest on different characters of the Bible. The party closed with ice cream served in abundant quantities to all. More parties and projects are planned for the future.

FORMER LOCAL MAN PASSES

Virgil L. Warren of Heppner died April 27 at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Funeral services were held Monday in Heppner with Rev. Wendel O. Herbison officiating in the Christian church. Interment was in the I.O.O.F. cemetery in Ione.

Mr. Warren, who resided in Hermiston with his wife until about a year ago, was born near Milan, Miss., May 25, 1877. He married Emma Boswell there in 1896. A daughter, Goldie Nelson, died in 1931, and a son, Clarence A. Warren, resides near Ione. Besides his widow and the son, also surviving are four grandchildren, one of whom is serving with the armed forces in England.

The Warrens farmed for a number of years in Morrow county, later moving to Hermiston. About a year ago they moved back to Heppner.

NAVY WEDDING IS REVEALED

Miss Beatrice Wilcox and G. K. Elwood, A.O.M., U. S. Navy, were married in a double ring ceremony April 14 in the Brookley Field, Ala., chapel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wilcox of Robertsdale, Ala., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Elwood of Hermiston.

Chaplain James E. Wilford, chief of chaplains for the Mobile Air Technical Service Command, performed the ceremony before an altar banked with cut flowers.

Organ music for the wedding was furnished by Sgt. Walter Westafer who played "I Love You Truly", "Because", "O Promise Me", and Schubert's "Ave Maria". Wagner's and Mendelssohn's wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride's attendant was Miss Shirley Taylor of Robertsdale, Ala., and the best man was Leonard Phau, A.O.M., U. S. Navy, of Ned Rockford, N. D.

Mrs. Elwood is the supervisor of the record's branch of the Adjutant General's office at Brookley Field. Seaman Elwood is presently stationed at Barrin Field, Ala.

LIFE'S Little TROUBLES

-CAN'T SLEEP-

No need to lie in bed—toss-worry and fret because CONSTITUTIONAL or GAS PRESURE won't let you sleep. Be sensible—get up—take a dash of ADLER-I-KA to relieve the pressure of large intestines on nerves and organs of the digestive tract. Adlerika assists old food wastes and gas through a comfortable bowel movement so that bowels return to normal size and the discomforts of pressure stop. Before you know it, you are asleep. Morning finds you feeling clean—refreshed and ready for a good day's work or fun. Caution, use only as directed. Get Adlerika from your druggist today.
