

FATS AND OILS RAISE IN POINTS

The point values of lard, shortening, cooking and salad oils were increased from six points, the former value, to ten points a pound on Sunday, May 13, Willard F. Case, OPA food rationing representative, has announced.

The action was necessitated by the War Food Administration's reduction in the amount of its allocations of fats and oils for civilian use, Case explained. He pointed out that the WFA decides how much civilians are to get of any food item, then the OPA handles the mechanics of rationing according to the available supply.

CARTERS MOVE TO BURNS AREA

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carter and family, who for the past 4½ years have farmed three miles east of Hermiston, are moving to a ranch six miles south of Burns this week end. The Burns ranch is equipped for haying on a large scale and Mr. Carter also plans to raise cattle.

The Carter children, who have been attending school here, will go to school next year at Hines, a short distance from their farm.

The Carter auction Sunday brought out a large crowd with the ranch going to Bill Mikesell.

GENE PIERCE IS NOW MAJOR RANK

News of promotion of Captain Gene Pierce, U. S. Infantry, to the rank of major has been received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Pierce. Simultaneously comes the announcement that his wife, 2nd Lt. Pierce, army nurse, has been advanced to the rank of first lieutenant. Major Pierce is now stationed in the Philippines, having been over seas three years.

He and Lt. Pierce were married in Australia, the latter now being stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif. Major Pierce, who had expected a furlough soon, will remain overseas some time longer.

BILL LAAS IS ON IWO JIMA

Iwo Jima (Delayed)—Staff Sergeant William F. "Cotton" Laas, who says he's one of Hermiston, Oregon's few Marines, is a member of a crack Leatherneck torpedo bomber outfit on this island.

The 30-year-old Oregon ordnance man, a ground crewman with the Fourth Marine Air Wing, was picked to come in with the forward echelon which flew 700 miles from the Marianas to establish their new base on Motoyama airstrip.

Cotton's job is to arm the torpedo planes for their round-the-clock patrols.

Living in a dugout camp just in front of the muzzles of the big guns, he has had little sleep in his spare time. On the field he has to keep a continual schedule, often working 24-hour periods without rest.

When he returns to his old base in the Marianas, he will go back to his old hobby of making ice cream for the boys in his camp.

A 1933 graduate of Hermiston High school, Laas played football at the University of Oregon in '35 and '36. He is a brother of Pete Laas, former owner of the P & G Cafe here.

GERALD JONES GETS PROMOTION

A U. S. Troop Carrier Base, France—Promotion of Corporal Gerald D. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Jones, Rt. 1, Hermiston, to Sergeant has been announced by a headquarters of Major General Paul L. Williams US Troop Carrier Forces.

Sergeant Jones is a mechanic with an Air Service Group ordnance platoon. He has been awarded a drivers and mechanics medal for service in the European theater of operations.

The Air Service Group to which Sgt. Jones is assigned, commanded by Colonel Albert A. Price, supplies and services planes and gliders of U. S. Troop Carrier Forces. Its efficient maintenance contributed to the success of the recent airborne landings on the east bank of the Rhine.

Sergeant Jones is a graduate of Hermiston high school. Prior to his entry into the armed forces, December 1942, he was employed by W. W. Felthouse, a contractor, as a mechanic. Sgt. Jones has been overseas eighteen months.

V-5 RE-OPENS CADET PROGRAM

The Naval Aviation Preparatory Training program is again open to a limited number of civilian high school graduates who meet the following qualifications: Age 17, single; graduate from high school before June 25, 1945; good standing in community; be able to pass Navy Flight physical and aptitude tests, and agree to remain on active duty for four years from date of transfer to grade of Aviation Cadet.

Further information may be had by contacting Supt. W. G. Kersbergen.

SAVING OF TIN STILL URGENT

"America's supply of tin in the United States today is far less than it was when this country entered the war in 1941, making it more imperative than ever that all used tin cans be saved, prepared and salvaged," Mrs. Walter Hamm, chairman of the local salvage committee, said today.

The War Production Board reports this nation is confronted with the fact that it has no tin mines and its stockpiles are rapidly diminishing as military requirements cut deeper and deeper for war supplies and equipment, Mrs. Hamm said.

UMATILLA HAS FINE PICKUP

In the recent United Nations clothing drive, Umatilla contributed a considerable amount of clothing to the collection, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. F. Knudsen. The material was brought to Hermiston where it was packed for shipment.

Due to the fact that the local chairman was not notified of the Umatilla shipment, that city was not mentioned in last week's Herald.

CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST (or Christian Church)

James H. Bartholomew, Pastor
What does Pentecost mean to you. On the first Pentecost Sunday of the New Testament Church the Holy Spirit descended from heaven and sat upon each one of the Christians who were present in the Upper Room. These spirit-filled Christians then spoke in foreign tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. But what did it all mean? What should Pentecost mean to us today? This is the subject of the sermon for Sunday morning in the Christian Church: "The Meaning of Pentecost".

Here is our schedule:
Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.
Bible school at 10:00 a. m.
Christian Endeavor at 7:00 p. m.
Evening worship and baptismal service at 8:00 p. m.
Wednesday evening Bible study at 7:30 p. m. and choir practice at 8:30.

Our Bible School attendance last Sunday was 140. You should have your children in our Bible classes, and you should be in one of our adult classes yourself. The strength of life comes out of the convictions of life.

FARM SECURITY TO MAKE LOANS

Limited funds for Farm Security loans will be available for the next two or three weeks to meet urgent financing needs of farmers who are unable to secure suitable credit through local banks and other agencies, announces Eugene Hampton, County FSA Supervisor, Johns Building, Pendleton, Oregon. A new allotment of funds has been received to meet demands for new and supplemental FSA loan needs.

Present limited funds will be used primarily to help farmers or veterans in need of additional livestock equipment and operating goods to place their units on a full production basis. Where two or three farmers wish to purchase a badly needed piece of larger equipment on a joint-ownership basis, group service loans can be authorized.

Part-time and small farmers who have a stable source of outside income are also being helped through loans for livestock and machinery to produce food for family use or market.

Farm Security loans can be made up to five years on livestock and machinery where the farmer needs that much time to work out his farm program and repay the loan. Loans bear five percent interest except for group service loans where the interest is only three per cent.

Interested farmers may contact the County FSA office, Johns Building, Pendleton, Oregon. Loan applications are passed on by the County FSA Committee of three farmers.
