Father's Day, June 17

Nothing has touched me more deeply than the act of the National Father's Day Committee. By profession I am a soldier, and take pride in that fact; but I am prouder, infinitely prouder, to be a father. A soldier destroys in order to build; the father only builds, never destroys. The one has the potentialities of death; the other embodies creation and life. And while the hordes of death are mightier the battalions of life are mightier still. It is my hope that my son when I am gone will remember me not from the battle but in the home repeating with him our simple daily prayer, "Our Father Who Art in Heaven."

—Douglas MacArthur
