Judy (Johnson) Shipp

Hermiston
November 27, 1965-January 13, 2015

Judy (Johnson) Shipp was born Nov. 27th, 1965, in Hanford, California, to parents James and Pollie Sewell Johnson. She went home to be with our Lord on Tuesday, January 13th, 2015, at the young age of 49 years, following a sudden and critical illness at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Washington.

Shipp

Judy was raised in California and later Idaho Falls, Idaho. She graduated from Davis High School in Yakima, Washington, and then moved to Hermiston, Oregon. She later graduated from BMCC with an associate's degree in office management. Judy was united in marriage to B. William "Bill" Shipp on June 18, 2006, in Hermiston, Oregon.

Judy had worked at Wal Mart, Ace Hardware and CAPECO for a time. She was a member of the First Christian Church and the rock hound club, Hermiston, Oregon, and former member of the Eagles and Moose lodges. Judy enjoyed going for drives, camping, the mountains, gardening, reading, word searches, Facebook, and most of all time with her family. She loved her dogs Miley and Jake.

Survivors include her dearly loved husband of nine years, Bill Shipp of Hermiston, Ore.; beloved daughters Erin Garcia of Hubbard, Christina Messenger of Hermiston, Ore., Stacey Picker of Pendleton, Ore., Destiny Handy of Idaho and Misty Ash and husband Nate of Tacoma, Wash. Her three loving sons are Brad Rattray of Hermiston, Ore., Bryan Shipp of Hermiston, Ore., and Joe Spence of Jerome, Idaho. Judy has seven grandchildren that she loved and cherished: Jacob, Chloe, Kristin, Donnavan, Siannon, Landon and Payton.

Judy was preceded in death by her mother and stepdad, Pollie and Fred Kile; her dad, James Johnson; and a nephew, James Simpson.

Judy will always be the shining light of our family. She has gone home to be with our Lord and will be waiting there for those of us that put our faith in Christ as our redeemer. Thank you for your prayers on her behalf. God has answered those prayers with His best, and most beautiful reward: HEAVEN. Please continue to pray for our family as we adjust to living without her physical presence. As a child, Judy, the youngest of five siblings, was everyone's favorite. As she grew up, those same qualities brought her many friends. She was a leader in youth activities as her children grew, and welcomed children that needed a loving mentor.

Judy had a loving heart, and she will be missed by all whose lives she touched. Heaven is a little brighter just knowing she is there waiting. We serve an awesome God and He watches over us with love. He knows our needs through this hard time, and He is right there at each point of need.

A celebration of life service will be held on Wednesday, January 21, 2015, at 1 p.m. at the First Christian Church, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Bobbie-Jo Griggs Lawrence

Walla Walla
July 21, 1974-January 17, 2015

Bobbie-Jo Griggs Lawrence, 40, of Walla Walla, Wash., passed away January 17, 2015, at her home. Funeral services will be held at Trinity Baptist Church, 595 Abbott Road, Walla Walla, WA 99362 on Saturday, January 24th. Mountain View Funeral Chapel will coordinate the services.

Lawrence

Memorial contributions can be made to Hapo Community Credit Union C/O Bobbie-Jo Lawrence. In lieu of flowers per Bobbie-Jo's request, donations can be made to a non-profit of her choice called J.U.G.S. "Just Us Girls" mailed to 1847 S.E. Bliss Ave. College Place, WA 99324. JUGS is a local non-profit helping local cancer patients and their families.

Bobbie-Jo was born in Odessa, Wash., to Shannon Griggs and Colleen Miller (Winfrey) on July 21, 1974. She went to high school in Grants Pass and graduated from Sandy High School. Bobbie-Jo went on to earn a degree in fire science from Fire Academy in Grants Pass, Ore. She worked at Rogue River Fire District, Hermiston Fire District and also as a medic for AMR Ambulance Service. Bobbie was also a part of a group called The Oregon National Disaster Team as a medic. She earned her way up the ranks and was an administrative officer. With her many years of service on this team she was a part of several large disasters such as hurricanes Ivan and Katrina. Her most memorable service was at the attacks on New York City on 9/11. She loved being a part of this group and loved all her team members dearly. Bobbie was always ready to go in case there was need.

Bobbie-Jo is survived by her husband Richard Lawrence; daughter Emilie Lawrence; sons Brandon Randolph, Jeff Randolph, Joseph Randolph, Daniel Randolph, Calvin Lawrence, and Kyler Lawrence; parents Shannon Griggs, Mark and Colleen Winfrey; brother Jeremy Griggs; sisters Kelly Prescott and Melissa Hartshorn; and grandparents Virginia Miller, Jim and Jackie Winfrey, and Elmer and Louise Griggs, as well as aunts, uncles and many, many nieces and nephews.

Bobbie-Jo was a devoted caregiver and friend, always wanting to help anyone in need. Her loving, caring spirit made her a wonderful wife, mother and firefighter. She was an entertainer, loved to sing and dance. She loved adventure and wasn't scared to try new things. Her home was always open to anyone in need or just otherwise. She inspired and encouraged so many people in her short life. She was the kind of person you were lucky to meet, blessed to know and forever grateful to have in your life. You will be missed.

Otto Carl Reise Jr.

Hermiston
Nov. 3, 1923-Jan. 15, 2015
