OBITUARIES

Mary Opal Kindall

Hermiston
 March 1, 1922-February 13, 2015

Mary Opal Kindall, a nearly lifelong Stanfield, Oregon, Loop Road resident, died February 13, 2015, at Sun Terrace Assisted Living in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 92 years, 11½ months.

She was born Mary Opal Johnson on March 1, 1922, the youngest of six daughters, to Carl and Jennie Johnson at the family farm on the Loop Road. She was raised and attended school in Stanfield until 1936 when Mary and her parents moved to Pilot Rock. She graduated from Pilot Rock High School in 1939, then attended Whitman College in Walla Walla for two years.

Mary married Jim Kindall on October 19, 1941, in Yuma, Arizona. They lived in Hawthorne, California, during WWII. After the war, they returned to Pilot Rock for a year, then moved to the Johnson Homestead at Stanfield in early 1947 where they farmed for the next 28 years. In 1962 Mary and Jim began raising turkeys. Mary did much of the turkey work, in addition to keeping the family books, cooking, and sewing, while Jim continued farming. Jim and Mary retired from farming in 1979, at which time Mary began working as a typist for the Simmons-Fisher Insurance Agency in Hermiston, a job she kept until 1988. In April 2014 Mary sold her home on Loop Road and moved to Sun Terrace.

She was a member of the Loop Road Harmony Club from 1949 until she moved into Sun Terrace. Mary was an accomplished bookkeeper, gardener, seamstress and pianist, and always had something on hand to eat whenever anyone dropped by. She enjoyed reading and crossword puzzles.

She is survived by three daughters: Marilyn Olson and husband Herb, Littleton, Colorado, Barbara Weissenfluh, Kennewick, Washington, and Kathleen Kindall and husband Dan Boyd, Richland, Washington; three grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents; five sisters; grandson Jacob Weissenfluh; and her husband, Jim.

A funeral service will be held on Thursday, February 19, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Pleasant View Cemetery, Stanfield, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions in Mary's memory to Good Shepard Medical Center, Hermiston, Oregon, or the American Heart Association.

Edith LeLacheur Jones

Mount Angel, Ore.
 September 18, 1928-February 7, 2015

Edith Jones died on February 7, 2015, in Mount Angel, Oregon. She was 86 years old. She is survived by her sister, Darlene Wilson, by her eight children: Steve Jones (Cecelia), Dan Jones (Jennifer), Katie Thomas (Christopher), Barb Molsee (Stephen), Tom Jones (Carol), Joanne Barnard (Dann), Chris Helton (John), and her beloved Greg; by her 18 grandchildren, and by one great-grandchild.

Edith was born in Missoula, Montana, on September 18, 1928. She graduated from high school in Bozeman, Montana, in 1946. She married Jack Jones in Bozeman in 1950.

A child of the Depression, she knew how to make do. This served her well with her large family. She and the children followed her husband Jack, who died in 2006, from Montana to Seattle, to Hawaii, and finally to Eastern Oregon, where she lived in Irrigon for 35 years. She moved to assisted living in Mount Angel in 2013.

Edith was deeply devoted to her Catholic faith and this provided her with much comfort after Jack's death in 2006. She was a consummate homemaker, keeping her large family organized and on time to everything. She never had a bad word to say about anyone. She often said that "mind thy own business" was the 11th Commandment. She had sayings for many situations. Edith was a longtime member of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston, Oregon. She loved to garden, read, and worked tirelessly on behalf of Special Olympics in support of her youngest child.

She will be deeply missed.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Oregon Special Olympics in Edith's memory.

Recitation of the rosary will be held on Saturday, February 21, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston, Oregon, with mass of Christian burial to follow at 1:30 p.m. Burial will then follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Orchestra to perform

Inland Northwest Orchestra and Saxophonist Paul Dunsmoor will perform at 4 p.m. at the Stanfield Elementary School Gym Sunday. The program will include the following classical works: "On the Steppes of Central Asia," by Alexander Borodin, "Symphony in D Minor," by Cesar Franck, and "Concerto in E-Flat Major," by Alexander Glazunov, with Paul Dunsmoor as a soloist. The concert is free, and a reception will follow the performance.

Dunsmoor is in his third year as the Hermiston High School band director. He has been playing alto saxophone for 15 years. Prior to teaching, he studied music at Oregon State University and received his bachelor and master's degrees in music education.

School. The competition is open to instrumentalists and vocalists up to age 25 in four age divisions — elementary, junior high/middle school, high school and young adult. Cash awards will be presented to division winners, and some participants will also be selected to perform in concert with the Inland Northwest Orchestra in May. Information and application forms are available online at www.inland-northwestmusicians.com. The deadline for applications is Feb. 27. For additional information, contact Alice Massey at amassey@wtechlink.us or by phone at 541-379-5564.

HHS graduation committee seeking donations

HHS Project Graduation needs community support to host the Hermiston High School's class of 2015. Costs include site rental, food, insurance, games, entertainment and transportation.

Jenny Miller, president of HHS Project Graduation, said the event, which is held the night of graduation, is a great way to keep graduates safe.

Registration for Young Artists Competition open

Inland Northwest Musicians is accepting applications for participation in the 15th annual Young Artists Competition, which will take place March 8 at Hermiston High

The drug- and alcohol-free gathering includes a variety of food, games, other activities and prizes.

"To put on a party of this magnitude, it takes thousands of dollars," said Michelle Kane, a committee member. "Monetary donations of any size would be greatly appreciated."

Kane added that in-kind donations of items that the graduates may enjoy, such as getting as a prize are also most welcome.

All donors will be mentioned in an advertisement in printed and online media, unless the donor would like to remain anonymous. HHS Project Graduation is a non-profit organization, so donations are tax deductible.

The committee of parents and caring community members is in the midst of a letter campaign to local businesses in an effort to garner support. Of course, individuals may also contribute. Checks should be made out to "HHS Project Graduation" and mailed to: HHS Project Graduation, P.O. Box 1105, Hermiston OR 97838. In-kind donations can be mailed or given to Kane or Kathy Dopps at West Park Elementary School.

For more information, contact Miller at jenny.miller@hermiston.k12.or.us; or Kane at michelle.kane@hermiston.k12.or.us or (541) 564-5985.
