Pet of week

Hi, my name is Coconut. I am a male border collie and Australian shepherd-mix available for adoption at the Humane Society of Eastern Oregon Pet Rescue in Hermiston. I was surrendered by my owner with a litter of puppies, and I need a new home. I've already had my shots, and I am good with children and other dogs. I am 8 to 9 months old and can be adopted for $150. I come with a free vet check and a three-day return policy. If I am neutered at 6 months of age, my owner will receive a $50 refund. If you are interested in welcoming Coconut to your family, please stop by the humane society at 1844 N.W. Geer Road, Hermiston, or call 541-564-6222.

Inmate captured near Hermiston after tip

HERMISTON HERALD

An escaped Two Rivers Correctional Institution inmate was arrested Thursday morning after a citizen reported seeing him south of Hermiston.

According to a press release from the Oregon State Police, at approximately 10:49 a.m., Umatilla County Dispatch received a call from a person who reported seeing inmate Steven Lee Fox near South First Street and East

McKinney Avenue.

A Umatilla County Sheriff's Office deputy responded and located Fox at about 11 a.m. and took him into custody without incident. Fox was transferred to the custody of OSP and lodged at the Umatilla County Jail on an outstanding warrant issued as the result of his escape.

Fox walked away from a 10-person inmate work crew at the Finley Buttes Landfill near Boardman at about 11 a.m. Wednesday. OSP, UCSO and Morrow County Sheriff's Office searched for him throughout the day and night.

Fox, 49, entered DOC custody Dec. 7, 2010, for one count of first-degree burglary, one count of unlawful use of a vehicle and one count of second-degree robbery from Multnomah County and also one count of first-degree burglary from Umatilla County. The earliest he would have been released from prison was Aug. 12, 2016.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hermiston schools pull foods with cumin

The Hermiston School District announced this week all foods containing cumin were pulled from school menus after the Food and Drug Administration warned consumers this week that some shipments of products with cumin tested positive for peanut protein, making them dangerous to people with peanut allergies.

As a precaution, the HSD food contractor, Chartwells School Dining Services, is adjusting menus and pulling foods containing cumin to ensure students with peanut allergies are not exposed to potential allergens until the distribution chain is cleared.
