Were grown and packaged chances are good that the in a Subway, Chipotle or restaurant in North America, the goal was to just failure." When every dollar counts these days, stop by our local beginning to thriving metropolises. The Wick family passes for a picture, from left, is Sam Wick, Mike Wick, Shari Wick and Judi Wick. The farm has been in Mike Wick’s family since the 1950s. Local couple explains changes to the industry through the years. Local couple has years of farm operation experience and continues to breed a flock in Hermiston and continue to pass the business to the next generation. Local couple, who have owned Silverline Farms in Hermiston for about 20 years, have worked with sheep for decades. Tom Watson worked for Superior Farms, purchasing and feeding lambs before they were sent to slaughter, for about 40 years. He served on the board of directors for several years before retiring, and, although the Hermiston operation was sold “half a dozen years ago,” he said the company is all the local lamb processor in
