

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY, APRIL 2

- A caller reported a female was verbally fighting with her son in the parking lot of Cottonwood Apartments on Southeast Sixth Street.
- A caller reported a male wearing a gray hoodie is at a residence on the corner of Southwest Pheasant Avenue and Southwest Seventh Street. The caller said the previous resident moved out, and the residence should be vacant.
- Someone at Hermiston High School reported an extremely intoxicated student is in the main office.
- A Wal-mart employee reported an elderly male is wandering around the store and is very disoriented. The man could not tell them his name and says he does not know where his car is at.
- A person reported he got a black and white border collie from two boys at Wal-mart. The person was not sure if the boys owned the dog, and they took off running when he took the dog. The person said he was going to call Pet Rescue to see if anyone reported the dog missing.
- A caller reported he was harassed by someone belonging to a motorcycle gang from Washington at a tavern on East Main Street.
- A caller reported her daughter was jogging near Brownell Boulevard and Third Street in Umatilla, and a green Subaru full of young males went off the road and passed her in the dirt, throwing dirt into her daughter's face.
- A person wanted to speak with someone in charge about semi's driving on Main Street.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1

- A caller reported his 1983 GMC pickup was taken on West Cedar Drive. The caller said the truck had scratches down the passenger side and a black tailgate. He said there was a diamond plate tool box in the back.
- Someone reported a brindle-colored pit bull with a black collar and no visible tags is wandering loose on East Montana Avenue. The dog is not aggressive or barking, but the caller said she was concerned because there are children walking home from school.
- A caller on Northeast D & M Lane in Hermiston called to report that the neighbor's dog dug under the fence and killed five chickens, and now the dog is stuck in the fence.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31

- A woman reported her RV was broken into on West Hartley Avenue. She said a flat screen television and a large case of movies was stolen.
- A city employee reported a house on Northwest 13th Street has the front door and a window broken.
- A person at a trailer park on East Jennie Avenue reported a woman has been texting and calling him and coming over for the last 72 hours after he asked her to stop, but she continues to do so.
- Someone at a business on East Highland Avenue reported small dogs across the street keep attacking people, and a small boy was just bit on the legs before someone in a car picked him up.
- A person reported a goat was missing on Southwest 11th Street.
- A caller reported a Chihuahua was hit by a car at a bank drive through on North First Street. The person said she had the dog at her house.
- An officer responded to a residence on West Ridgeway Avenue after someone reported two small children were possibly left alone.
- A caller at Sunset Motel on North First Street reported she purchased a car from her friends, and now someone is texting her saying the vehicle is stolen because one of her friends owes the man money, and she wanted to know what her options are.

Betty A. Wilson

Hermiston

October 9, 1953-March 31, 2015

Wilson

Betty A. Wilson was born on October 9, 1953, in Yakima, Washington, to parents Harry and Iona Lovell Richardson. She died on March 31, 2015, at her home in Hermiston, Oregon, surrounded by her family at the age of 61 years.

Betty was raised and attended schools in Royal City, Washington. She graduated from Royal City High School in the class of 1972. Betty was united in marriage to Wayne Wilson on June 10, 1972, in Othello, Washington. They lived in Royal City until moving to Phoenix, Arizona, in 1986 and then to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1989 where they have lived since.

Betty worked as a teacher's aide at Highland Hills Elementary before working as the secretary at Armand Larive Middle School. She later transferred to Sandstone Middle School when it opened, where she has worked since. Betty enjoyed her time with her family and was a very supportive Mom and Grandma. She enjoyed traveling with her sisters and playing bunco.

She is survived by her husband, Wayne Wilson, Hermiston, Ore.; daughters Melanie Potter, Medical Lake, Wash., Lizzie Arnold and husband Jacob, Hermiston, Ore., and Jenni Riffel and husband Roger, Omaha, Neb.; son Dennis Wilson and wife Karla, Pasco, Wash.; sisters Clara "Lulu" Paulette, Hermiston, Ore., Patti Thomas, Moses Lake, Wash., and Jenni Potter, Hermiston, Ore.; "stepsister" Vicki Ball, Hermiston, Ore.; grandchildren Cami, Keagan, Kodie, Taylor, Ryan, Shayla, Tyson, Teegan and Charlie; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Betty was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Nancy Beckley; and a brother, Buck Richardson.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, April 4, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at the Sandstone Middle School commons, 400 N.E. 10th St., Hermiston, OR 97838.
