OBITUARY

Kelly K. Adams Klamath Falls June 11, 1938-April 19, 2015

Kelly K. Adams, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, passed away on April 19, 2015, at a care facility in Medford, Oregon.

Kelly was born on June 11, 1938, in Hermiston, Oregon, to William "Bill" and Irene Adams. He was raised in Echo, Oregon, where he graduated from Echo High School

1959, Kelly married Betty Correa, also of Echo. They had three daughters, Martie, Teri and Vickie. They later divorced and Kelly married Charlotte Staub, and became a father to her daughter, Cookie.

During his high school years Kelly had a passion for fast cars and was rumored to have outrun local law enforcement on more than one occasion. His love of a nice car stayed with him throughout his life, and the thrill of a fast ride included dragsters, speed boats and snowmobiles as an adult. He enjoyed trapshooting, vacations to Wallowa Lake and snowmobiling with family and friends. He retired from Weyerhauser Timber Company in Klamath Falls, where he worked most his adult life.

Survivors include wife Charlotte of Klamath Falls, daughter Cookie Lockhart and her husband

Harvey, as well as daughters Martie Correa and husband Chuck, Teri Doherty and husband Raymond, and Vickie Kenny and husband Jim. He is also survived by his sister, Sharon Wilson, niece Michelle Wilson, nine grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and an infant granddaughter, Riley Doherty.

A private memorial will be held at a later date by his three oldest daughters, with his ashes spread in one of his favorite places.
