Blair Emery Cleaver

Prosser, Wash.
May 17, 2015

"For this child I have prayed, and the Lord granted the deepest desires of my heart." 1 Samuel, 1:27-28.

Blair Emery Cleaver was born May 17, 2015, at 11:33 a.m. at Evergreen Medical Center in Kirkland.

Blair's parents, Kelly and Leslie Cleaver, of Prosser, Washington, and twin sister Emery, were blessed with a short time to forever fall in love before Blair left this world for her Heavenly Home.

Blair is loved and missed by her parents Kelly and Leslie Cleaver, and twin sister Emery; maternal grandparents Mack and Gail Brown of Prosser, paternal grandparents Wesley Auston and Debara Jean Cleaver of Hermiston, Oregon; great-grandmothers Ora Vaught of Prosser, Maxine Brown of Prosser, Hilda Elizabeth Blair of Pendleton, Oregon, and Bernice Yvonne Cleaver of Hermiston; aunt and uncles Darrel and Adie Brown of Kennewick, their children Cyndal and Nolan Brown, Wyatt and Jamie Cleaver of Hermiston, and their daughter, Makayla Cleaver.

Bobby Joe Fedde

Umatilla
August 29, 1937-May 18, 2015

Fedde

Bobby Joe was born on August 29, 1937, at Jewell, Kansas. He moved with his family to Oregon in 1949, before finally settling in Salem, Oregon.

Bobby Joe served a stint in the Air Force, then spent many years truck driving and working road construction. He moved his family to Rufus, Oregon, in 1969. He owned the Rufus Hancock Gas Station for a short time, then worked at Martin-Marietta Aluminum Plant for 13 years. When the plant closed, Bobby Joe and his wife then moved to Umatilla to be with their son. Bobby Joe drove truck and worked for Taggares (Boardman, Oregon) for several years before working for Wal-Mart in floor maintenance where he retired.

Bobby Joe is survived by his wife of 51 years, Gail, and son Steven, both of Umatilla. No services or memorials planned at this time. His cremated remains will be inurned in the family crypt at Belcrest Memorial Gardens in Salem, Oregon, at a later date.

Obituary Policy

The Hermiston Herald publishes paid obituaries. The obituary can include small photos and, for veterans, a flag symbol at no charge. Expanded death notices will be published at no charge. These include information about services. Obituaries may be edited for spelling, proper punctuation and style. Obituaries and notices may be submitted online at www.hermistonherald.com/obituaryform, by email to obits@hermistonherald.com, by fax to 541-276-8314, placed via the funeral home or in person at the Hermiston Herald or East Oregonian offices.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY, MAY 25

- A semi-truck driver on East Main Street said he had been following a vehicle driving all over the road on northbound on Highway 395.
- On Northeast Eighth Place, a caller reported hearing a male beating up his girlfriend but could not see anything.
- A caller reported an aggressive boxer tried to attack him on East Ridgeway Avenue.
- A man on East Main Street stated his son received a call on his cell phone from a man calling from a restricted number who threatened to blow up his son's house. The man said the caller stated, "I'm an Afghan soldier. I am by your house, and I'm going to blow it up." The caller requested an officer respond and said that his son was there.
- An employee at a hospital in Kennewick reported a Hermiston man came to the emergency room with shrapnel to his face and right pinkie finger. The man said he was target shooting at a metal chair with a friend in the Hermiston area.
- At Cold Springs Reservoir on Reservoir Road in Stanfield, a caller reported hearing approximately seven shots fired in the area of the back parking lot.
- A man reported a train collided with a vehicle at Cunningham Road and Mac Hoke Road in Echo. The caller said he thought the vehicle was unoccupied, but he was not sure because there are people standing around it.

SUNDAY, MAY 24

- A person reported she heard gun shots, possibly from an AK47 or high-powered gun, at Newport Park on East Newport Avenue. The caller reported approximately 15 shots were fired in five minutes.
- Someone reportedly was going through the garbage cans in front of Java Junkies on Sixth Street in Umatilla.
- A person reported a bald man in shorts and a tank top was panhandling at the Interstate 82 east ramp in Umatilla.
- A woman reported someone took the hinges off her gate and stole items from her property on Dark Canyon Avenue in Umatilla.

- A man said juveniles took his vehicle, a dark green Chevy Venture, from Village Park on Southwest 11 Street.
  - On Bowdin Lane in Hermiston, a woman reported she heard five gun shots, coming from the south.
  - A person reported a young woman was walking on East Punkin Center Road, and a vehicle was following her. The caller said the woman was yelling with a male who was in the car. She said she asked the woman if she needed help, but she said no. When the caller was driving away, however, the yelling resumed.
- SATURDAY, MAY 23
- On East Wilshire Avenue, a caller stated his vehicle, a gray 1999 Toyota Solara, was taken from his residence. He said the vehicle was locked, but a set of keys is missing.
  - An employee with Wal-Mart asked for an officer to respond to the business and speak with a manager in the photo lab regarding some pictures that were turned in to be developed that may be illegal.
  - A caller reported a Craftsman's tool box with tools, as well as a fishing pole, was taken from a locked vehicle on East Gladys Avenue.
  - Someone reported a black Chevrolet heading East on Interstate 84 near milepost 176 was "loaded to the gills" with marijuana plants.
  - A woman reported she and her father returned to his residence on Cowlitz Avenue in Umatilla and discovered someone had broken into the residence by breaking through a side garage door window.
  - A caller reported a man was shooting a gun at Cold Springs Reservoir on Reservoir Road in Stanfield. The person said the man is on foot in the bushes, and the shots sounded like they came from a .22. The caller said about 30 shots had been fired.
  - A caller reported transients were panhandling at the junction of Interstate 82 and Highway 730 in Umatilla.
- FRIDAY, MAY 22
- On West Linda Avenue, a caller reported she heard some-

- one trying to get into her house. She said when she got up to check, she found the screens were off the windows in front of her house.
  - A caller at Chateaubri Mobile Home Park on Southwest 11th Street reported she wanted an officer to contact her because she received a call from a man who said his name was Rick and he was a secretary with the Treasury Department. She said the caller wanted to confirm her information regarding $1.5 million she was awarded by Publishers Clearing House. She said she did tell the man her name, address, date of birth and where she banks. She said she was a victim of fraud before and is concerned.
  - A person on Southwest 11th Street reported 20 to 25 different cars were driving past her house and parking in different spots before leaving and driving past her house again. The caller said she would like the cars to stop driving by her house.
  - A caller on Northeast North Street said her son's X-box was hacked, and the person who hacked it said the boy must get a $50 card from Wal-Mart to get his account back.
  - At Village Park on Southwest 11th Street, a caller reported juveniles were beating on her trailer. She said she cannot go to sleep with the activity taking place, and she did not want to get off the phone because she is scared. She said the juveniles run whenever they see headlights enter the park.
  - An employee at Wal-Mart reported a rottweiler was inside the produce section of the store. The employee said the owner was paged, but no one has come to claim the dog.
