Hermiston celebrates induction of new honor society members

Twenty-three students from Hermiston High School were inducted as new members of the National Honor Society in a ceremony at the school Tuesday evening. Members were selected by the chapter's faculty council for meeting high standards of scholarship, service, leadership and character.

The students inducted were: Jujan Aguayo, Salma Anguiano, Taylor Betz, Beau Blake, Jasmin Chen, Robert Coleman, Elina Cross, Frederick Gonzalez, Magdalena Ibarra, Shasta Jundt, Dallas Kile, Brady Linnell, Makayla Loper, Ashley Love, Emily Marvin, Lindsey McAllister, Maria Meza, Reed Middleton, Kody Moss, Alexis Myers, Tanna Osmin, Wyatt Paschal, Jessie Pollard, Trystin Seavert and Hannah Walker.

"We are very proud to recognize these outstanding members of our student body," chapter adviser Chris Demianew said in a press release. "National Honor Society members are chosen for and then expected to continue their exemplary contributions to the school and community."

The HHS chapter has been active since 1949. Each year the chapter sponsors several service projects for the school and community.

The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. There are chapters in more than 16,000 high schools, and, since 1921, millions of students have been selected for membership. Millions of dollars in scholarships have been awarded to senior members since 1945 by the sponsoring organization, National Association of Secondary School Principals.
