Christina Wright

Hermiston

March 30, 1937-May 29, 2015

Christina S. Wright was born on March 30, 1937, in Alloway, Scotland. She passed away May 29, 2015, at Kadlec Regional Medical Center in Richland, Washington, at the age of 78.

Wright

Christina moved to the United States as an Air Force wife and traveled to many different states and finally settled in Spokane, Washington, where she raised her family. Christina worked as a waitress and after retiring in 1997 had moved to Hermiston, Oregon, and resided for 17 years.

She was an avid knitter, loved crafts, and was always up for having a good cup of tea. She was a loving mother, caring Nana, and an all-around beautiful woman that will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her daughters Lillias Dwyer (Dan), Spokane, Wash., and Heather Ottmar (Brent), Hermiston Ore.; sons Steven, Gary, Martin and Nicholas, Spokane, Wash.; 15 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by three children, Michael, John and Janet.

A private service will be held in Spokane, Washington.

*We part with our loved ones
But not forever
If we trust God's promise
And doubt it never.*

Diana Christean Young-Stroe

Pilot Rock

July 22, 1952-May 31, 2015

Diana Christean Young-Stroe was born July 22, 1952, the daughter of Herman and Wanda Young, grew up on the family ranch (with her sisters, Linda and Susan) outside of La Grande, Oregon. On May 31, 2015, at age 62, Diana lost her short but hard-fought battle with colon cancer at her home in Pilot Rock, Oregon, with the care and love of husband Gheorge and their children along with grandchildren.

Young-Stroe

After graduating from La Grande H.S. she completed her education with a B.S. Education major and music minor in 1975 at E.O.U. La Grande, Oregon.

Diana loved helping her dad with chores, and let us add fishing with him held prominent place in her memory. Also, Diana loved taking care of and riding her horse hours on end and enjoyed her pet dog and birds, which she taught to say many words.

Diana fulfilled her dream of having her own family after marrying Gheorge "George" Stroe in Pendleton, Oregon, on 13 November 1976. Putting her teaching on hold she would give birth to Sean, Shantel, Sheila and Rachel. Diana gave them selfless love, support and direction. Diana was and will continue to be their compass and extended to 12 grandchildren.

Diana was a seeker of truth and found it in her study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. She compared the scriptures in many different versions of the Bible after which she concluded that she wanted to give exclusive devotion to Jehovah God and follow the footsteps of Jesus Christ, and was baptized in July 1979 at the Divine Love District Convention at Pullman, Washington.

Diana loved sharing the hope of living forever on a paradise earth (Luke 23:43) without pain, sorrow, and death (Rev. 21:3,4; Ps. 37:11,29) with all who would lend an ear. We would be remiss not to mention Diana loved home keeping, music, singing, bicycling, gardening and walking, too.

There will be a memorial service held for Diana at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on 20 June, 2015, at 601 S.W. Runion Ave., Pendleton, OR, at 3:00 p.m. followed by a get-together at the Vert Auditorium, 480 S.W. Dorion Ave., from 4-6 p.m.

Expressions of condolences may be left online at: www.pioneerchapel.com.
