In its second game of the day, Stanfield showed extreme patience at the plate.

Stanfield batters worked 17 walks and turned them into 27 runs in a 27-4 beat-down of Sunnyside Christian Thursday evening in Stanfield. Thylor Monkus started on the mound and tossed three innings of one-run ball on two hits, walked one and struck out six. He also heavily contributed at the plate, going 2 for 2 with three RBIs and three runs scored. Ryan Bailey (3 for 4, four RBIs, run) and Dylan Grogan (3 for 5, two RBIs, run) also helped out.

Stanfield moved to 4-2 after the win.

After plating just one run in the bottom of the first to match the run Sunnyside pushed across, Stanfield took over. IT scored seven runs in the second, highlighted by a two-run triple from Bailey, his second of the day. Up 8-1 after the second inning, Stanfield piled on with 12.

Justin Keeney (one), Monkus (two), Tony Flores (one), Bailey (one), Keith Wampler (one), Dillon Dunlap (one) each had RBIs in the inning. Stanfield led 20-1 after three.

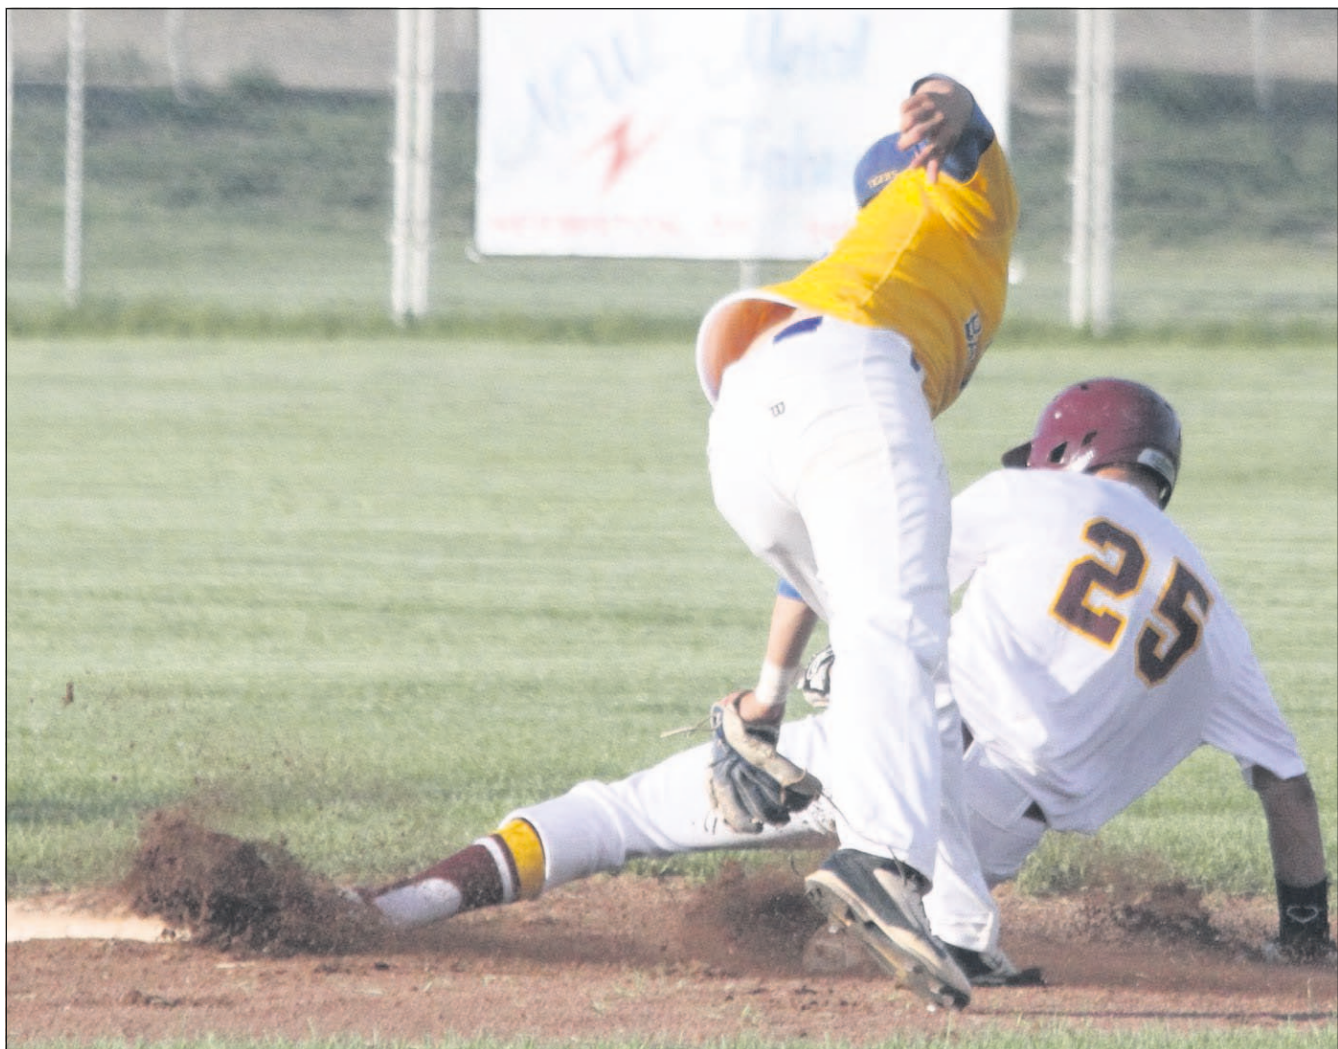

Sunnyside pushed two across in the fourth, but Stanfield responded with seven. After Grogan tripped to lead off the frame, Damian Curiel was pegged and Klay Jensen reached on an error to plate Grogan. A hit batsmen, followed by two walks and two singles created another six runs for Stanfield and a 27-3 lead.

Sunnyside would get one more in the fifth.

evening. On top of that, this is Hermiston's second baseball game in a month going back to the end of the high school season.

Hawkins, though, wasn't focused on the mistakes. He wants this summer to act as a training ground for younger players, to get them to a point where they're potentially ready to play varsity baseball next spring.

"That's why we're playing this summer," he said. "We have a lot of games ahead of us. Just keep working hard and stay positive."

Early on, it looked like a pitcher's duel. Hermiston lefty RJ Robles allowed just one run over his first three innings of work, but left in the fourth after throwing 84 pitches. A double, single and an error allowed Richland's first run to score. Richland's nine hitter hit a little squibbler that got past a diving Tyler Sexton at first, and Hayden Edmiston's throw to Robles covering first was low, allowing the first run to score.

Hermiston tied it in the fifth when Gritz and Paytan Staker each singled. An out later, Mitch Brown drove in Gritz with a single of his own, getting Robles off the hook and tying things at one. An inning later, Hermiston took a brief lead when Sexton doubled — his third of the summer — and Garron Anderson walked behind him. After Gritz singled to load the bases, Tolan came through with his only hit of the day to plate Anderson. Kaden Moss then singled home Anderson to give Hermiston a 3-1 lead.

But it wouldn't last. In the next half inning — the top of the seventh — new pitcher Gritz walked two with one out, then allowed three straight singles for five runs and a 6-3 deficit. After an out, a single and an error gave Richland two more and an 8-3 lead.

It would stay there until the home ninth, when Robles walked to start things. He was put out at second on a fielder's choice off the bat of Edmiston, and Daniel Gossler followed with a single with one out. Sexton muscled his second hit of the day into left field, plating Gossler, and Anderson singled home Sexton a batter later. But a couple lazy fly balls ended the threat and the ballgame.

Slade Gritz was 2-for-3 with a run scored and Tyler Sexton was 2-for-3 with a double, an RBI and a run scored. RJ Robles struck out 10 Richland batters in four-plus innings, walked two, but threw 84 pitches.

Hermiston is in Portland on Saturday for a double-header with Liberty Christian. First pitch is set for 11 a.m.
