OBITUARY

Warren 'Buster' Atwell

Hermiston

November 1, 1925-June 15, 2015

Buster was born in Scotia, California, the son of Stewart and Mathilda Duchmann Atwell, Nov. 1, 1925. He died at his home June 15, 2015, at the age of 89.

Atwell

Buster grew up in Eureka, California, and served as Seaman First Class, radio airman, in the Pacific During WWII until his honorable discharge.

He worked construction as superintendent on many projects throughout Oregon and California. Buster enjoyed hunting fishing, camping, trap shooting, playing cards, feeding quail in his yard, scenic drives, building in his shop and sharing this with family.

He is survived by his wife, Donna; children Michael Atwell, Osburn, Idaho, Bruce Atwell, Hayfork, Calif., Suzanne Atwell, Granite, Idaho, Vicky Atwell, Middleton, Idaho, Peggy Ibarra, Hermiston, Ore., Laurie Atwell, Hermiston, Ore., and Elaine Silva, Grants Pass, Ore.; sisters Anita Brazil, Fields Landing, Calif., Colleen Cruz, Eureka, Calif., and Joan Golbov, Sparks, Nev.; and numerous grand- and great-grandchildren.

We survivors gather to honor a humble, quiet, generous, sometimes mischievous family man. We smile remembering the hunting and camping trips, the playhouse, paddleball, card games, table games, help with homework and school projects, all the wooden toys, stools, clocks, stilts and lamps he made for us.

He taught us to drive a standard transmission while recovering from major back surgery, to give an honest day's work for your pay, honesty, responsibility, "put tools back where you got them," how to get coconut out of the shell, and to know we could always count on each other. We will miss the hugs, your knowledge we never got all of, the smiles when we played a good game of pinochle, and when we'd show up, just because.

We love you, learned from you, passed on what we have learned and miss you terribly. As we say goodbye to our beloved grandfather, you will be missed and continue to remain in our hearts. We are proud you were our grandfather. Your smile, laughs, and all the things you have shown us and let us create with you will never be forgotten.

We hope you will find peace and happiness walking with the angels. Our hearts are saddened with your loss, but your memory will not be forgotten! Rest in peace, Grandpa Buster!

"Love you," we'd say; "Likewise," you'd reply. For all you are to each of us, we are ... "MUCH OBLIGED."
