NEWS IN BRIEF

Boardman man dies in motorcycle crash

A Boardman man died in a motorcycle crash Thursday, July 2.

Oregon State Police reported William R. Brooks, 58, of Boardman was traveling westbound on Highway 730 when he crashed on the westbound Interstate 84 on-ramp.

According to a preliminary investigation by OSP it appears Brooks had already passed the on-ramp when he attempted to backtrack onto it by navigating his 2002 Harley Davidson across the median. His motorcycle struck a culvert and he was thrown off. Brooks was discovered by a passing motorist who called 9-1-1 at about 11:20 p.m. He died at the scene.

OSP reports alcohol consumption is being investigated as a contributing factor.

The agency was assisted on scene by Boardman Fire and Ambulance, Morrow County Sheriff's Department and the Oregon Department of Transportation.

Three small fireworks fires reported on the 4th

In Hermiston three small brush fires and a garage fire made for a relatively benign Fourth of July weekend this year.

"Surprisingly, based on how hot and dry it was, it was pretty quiet," said Tom Bohm, fire marshal for the Hermiston Fire Department.

He said during the evening of July 4th the department responded to a small brush fire on Minnehaha, one on Southwest 17th Street and one near Warehouse Beach off Highway 730. All three were caused by fireworks.

He said the garage fire, which happened on Powertline Road on Sunday afternoon, was caused by an electrical short and was not fireworks-related.
