

OBITUARIES

Barbara Ann Clark
Hermiston
April 19, 1935-July 25, 2015

Barbara Ann Clark was born on April 19, 1935, in Decatur, Illinois, to parents Lawrence Dale and Mary Elizabeth Sutter Hamilton. She died on July 25, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon, and rejoined her husband of nearly 60 years, at the age of 80 years.

Clark

Barbara was raised in North Carolina, Florida and Illinois. Barbara was united in marriage to Louis L. Clark on June 10, 1955, in Decatur, Ill. She worked in various office positions including executive assistant to the hospital administrator at Sisters of St. Francis. They lived in Illinois until 1987 when they moved to Hermiston, Oregon, to be near their family. Barbara was the office manager for her son-in-law, Thomas Farney, at his surgery practice until retiring in 2001.

She was a member of the Eastern Star, Women of the Moose, Elks Emblem Club, had served as president of the PTA in Illinois, and worked alongside and supported her husband Louis in his many Shrine activities.

Barbara enjoyed playing pinocle, cooking, knitting, traveling, and entertaining family and friends.

She is survived by her daughters Marianne Farney and husband Thomas, Hermiston, Ore., and Diane Mueggler and husband Scott, Kennewick, Wash.; son David Clark, Hermiston, Ore.; four grandchildren: Daniel (Scarlet), Annamarie (Lewis), Barbi (Devin) and Caitlin (Beth); brother James D. Hamilton, Decatur, Ill.; and sisters Linda Krska and Bonnie Seger, both of Sun City, Fla.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband Louis L. Clark on March 17, 2015, and by her parents.

Mass of Christian burial was held on Monday, August 3, 2015, at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston, Oregon.

Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Robert R. 'Bob' Taylor
Hermiston
February 20, 1926-July 28, 2015

Long-time Wheeler and Morrow County resident Robert R. "Bob" Taylor, 89, died Tuesday, July 28, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon. Memorial service was held Monday, August 3, 2015, at the chapel of Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. Graveside service with military honors were held Monday, August 3 at the Mayville Cemetery in Mayville, Oregon.

Taylor

He was born February 20, 1926, in Twickenham, Oregon, the son of Ray and Avis Hawk Taylor. Bob was raised on the family farm in Mayville, Oregon. He attended school in Mayville and Fossil, graduating in 1943. Bob enlisted into the United States Marine Corps at the age of 17. He served as an amphibian tank driver for the First Marine Division. While in the Marines, he participated in the invasion of Peleliu and Okinawa. Bob was proud of being a Marine and said, "Once a Marine always a Marine".

After the war, Bob joined a sheep shearing crew and traveled throughout the western states. He always said his job was being a wool stomper. Bob worked on several ranches as ranch foreman including Smith and Sons and Wilson Ranches in Wheeler and Gilliam County. On February 26, 1949, Bob married Luella Schmidt in Goldendale, Washington. They raised their two sons, Bob Jr. and Bill, on those ranches. While living in Fossil he served as County Deputy Marshal for the area dances and the county fair. Upon leaving the ranch, Bob went to work at Kinzua Corporation. The couple then moved to Lexington, Oregon, where Bob served as mayor for eight years. In 2010, Bob and Luella moved to Sun Terrace Assisted Living in Hermiston.

Bob was a life member of the VFW Post #4750 and the First Marine Division Association. He was also a member of the American Legion Post #0087, and Willows Lodge IOOF of Heppner, Oregon. Bob loved spending time hunting elk and deer. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his sisters Alpha McKenzie and Mary Sargent. Survivors include his wife of 66 years, Luella Taylor of Hermiston, Oregon; sons Bob Taylor and his wife Darla of Othello, Washington, and Bill Taylor and his wife Colleen of Baker City, Oregon; four grandchildren, Traci Davis (Tom) of Weatherboard, Texas, Thad Taylor (Tami) of Othello, Heidi Lagao (Phil) of Sisters, Oregon, and Casey Taylor (Tera) of Baker City; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Honor Flight Inc., Attn: Dianne Gresse, 300 E. Auburn Ave., Springfield, OH 45505. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

Shirley Ann Crane
Hermiston
April 13, 1929-July 20, 2015

Shirley Ann Crane was born April 13, 1929, in Baker City, Oregon, to parents Ernest Andrew and Anna May (Olsen) Brox. She died Monday, July 20, 2015, at Canyon Lakes Restorative & Rehabilitation Center in Kennewick, Washington, at the age of 86.

Crane

She was raised in Baker and graduated from Baker High School. On June 8, 1947, she married Lyle Wesley Crane in Baker City. They moved to Hermiston in 1962. Shirley taught piano lessons for over 50 years. She was a member of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church where she played the organ and piano for mass, was a member of their choir and a member of the Catholic Daughters of America. Shirley enjoyed cooking, decorating her home, but her true love was her family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Lyle; two sons, Ernie and Kevin; and parents Ernest and Anna Brox.

She is survived by three daughters, Cathie (Bernie) Lamson of Stuart, Fla., Monica (Karid) Bauer of Hermiston, Ore., and Holly (Matt) Rogers of Kennewick, Wash.; six grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

A memorial mass will be held on Saturday, August 8, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, 565 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838.

A luncheon will follow at the parish hall. Private family burial of cremains will be at the Hermiston Cemetery at a later date.

Memorial contributions may be made to Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church building fund.

Florence 'Cricket' Miller
Las Vegas, Nev.
August 24, 1962-July 24, 2015

Florence Miller, known to her family and friends as Cricket, peacefully passed way with family and friends by her side on July 24, 2015. Cricket blessed this world on August 24, 1962; she was born in Yakima, Washington.

Miller

Cricket attended Hermiston High School. She was proud to be a member of the cheer-leading team for the wrestling team her junior year. On January 13, 1979, her life took a big turn when a semi truck collided with her school bus. She would now be living her life in a wheelchair.

Miller

She adjusted to life in a wheelchair with such courage, optimism and faith. She did not let it get her down. Her warm loving smile could brighten up any room.

She did not let that wheelchair slow her down. She graduated with her high school class. She then went on to attend UNLV and graduated in 1999. She worked at Thomas and Mack for 22 years. She loved helping children and was a volunteer for CASA in Las Vegas. In 1993 she was honored with the Clark County Volunteer of the Year award for her work with CASA.

Cricket enjoyed acting and went to acting school. She was in a pilot for a sitcom and was an extra in the movie "Indecent Proposal."

There are no words to say thanks to Cricket's classmates and the people of Eastern Oregon for all the love and support you gave her all these years.

Cricket is preceded in death by her mother, Naomi Standefer, father Tony Standefer, and grandparents Perry and Florence Arb. She is survived by her brothers John Clemons and his wife Bonnie of Herriman, Utah, and Perry Clemons and his wife Becky of Oakridge, Oregon; sister Terry Harris and her husband Tom of Thompson Falls, Montana; many nieces and nephews and great-nieces and -nephews; Calvin, her beloved cat; and many friends.

There will be a potluck memorial in Hermiston, August 23 at 2:00 p.m. at 816 E. Main Street, Hermiston, Oregon.

The HHS Class of 1980 is starting a scholarship fund in Cricket's name. In lieu of flowers please donate to the Cricket Miller Scholarship Fund in care of Hermiston Bulldogs Booster Club.

Phillip William Cohn
Wilsonville
June 6, 1925-July 31, 2015

Phillip William Cohn of Wilsonville, Oregon, left his loved ones here on earth on July 31, 2015. He passed at his home in Charbonneau. He was 90.

Cohn

Phillip was born on June 6, 1925, in Heppner, Oregon. He attended school in Heppner and graduated from Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington. He served in the Navy as a radar specialist. In 1948 he married Marian Andrews and together they had 4 children, Teresa Cohn-Netter, Sheryl Gannon, Phillip Andrew Cohn and Elizabeth Cohn.

Phillip had a successful livestock business and later took his talented business ethics into real estate. His business ventures included Cohn Livestock, C and

B Livestock, Superior Farms, Pilgrims Pantry Inn, Blue Mountain Forest Products and Andrews Management.

Phillip was a very kind, gentle and true friend. His gifts were many and his generosity unmatched. He will be greatly missed by family and his vast array of friends and acquaintances.

Phillip is survived by his four children and was predeceased by his wife, Marian. His incredible will for living should inspire us all. A memorial service will be held at St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church in Wilsonville on Friday, August 7, at 3:00 p.m.

Memorial donations may be made in Phillip's name to the Serenity Hospice, 11481 S.W. Hall Blvd. #200, Tigard, OR 97223.
