Since its inception in 1988, 18 cowboys have won the all-around title at the 27 Farm-City Pro Rodeos in Hermiston.

Of the 19 winners, five have been repeat champions and two have won more than two FCPR all-around buckles.

The most notable winner is Trevor Brazile, the 20-time world champion and 12-time PRCA all-around champ. His titles came in 2005 and 2009. In 2009, Farm-City was one of 26 all-around titles the Amarillo, Texas native captured.

Joe Beaver is the all-time winningest all-around cowboy at Farm-City, taking four titles. His wins have spanned decades and centuries, from some of the first rodeos to some of the most recent. His first all-around title came in 1994, in the seventh edition of Farm-City. His next title came in the ensuing century in 2001, and he followed that with all-around championships in 2004 and 2008. Beaver is an eight-time world champ, including three PRCA
