all-around titles (1995, '96 and 2000), and a five-time tie-down roping champ (1985, '87, '88, '92 and '93). Beaver was inducted into the ProRodeo Hall of Fame in 2000.

Mike Fuller, from nearby Clarkston, Washington, has won the second-most all-around titles with three. He was the first cowboy to win consecutive FCPRs after winning in 1992 and 1993, and secured his third in 1995. Fuller's three of four FCPR titles is the most in a four-year stretch.

Rocky Steagall, who won the very first Farm-City Pro Rodeo All-Around in 1988, was also the first to repeat, winning his second Farm-City in 1990. Steagall, formerly of Irrigon, is now a bronc riding coach in California.

Cash Meyers was the last repeat winner, winning Farm-City in 1999 and 2000. In 1999, his first year on the PRCA circuit, he earned Overall Rookie of the Year honors. Myers has qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo 7 times and won more than $1.6 million in his career in steer wrestling, tie-down roping and steer roping.
