SPORTS IN BRIEF

Stanfield Booster Bash this weekend

The Stanfield Booster club Booster Bash Steak Feed and Auction is this Saturday at 5:30 p.m. at Elephant's Trunk Antiques at 105 S. Main St., Stanfield.

For a $20 ticket, folks will get steak, a baked potato, baked beans, coleslaw, beverages and dessert. All of the proceeds go toward Stanfield Secondary students and their activities including, but not limited to, booster club programs, scholarships, FFA, sports and band.

plays and a turnover on downs, losing any momentum it had. After the Bulldogs (0-5) forced Coeur d'Alene's second-straight turnover on downs, Hermiston went three-and-out, but that wasn't the worst part of the exchange. Hermiston punter Bob Coleman, who has been the victim of some poor longsnapping this season, watched as the ball went over his head, bounced once eight yards deep in his own end zone and flew out the back of it for a safety.

To that point, Hermiston's defense had been largely holding this explosive, pass-happy offense on a windy night to mostly screen and swing passes, and it was making the Vikings work for every yard. After a Coeur d'Alene punt following the safety, Hermiston got on the board when Freddy Rodriguez drove home a 40-yard field goal to get Hermiston off the schneid at 8-3 at the expiration of the first quarter.

It was in the second quarter that Hermiston truly let the game slip away.

In five second quar-

of girls. They know what happened last year and they know why it happened. And they know they don't want to experience that again. As a refresher, Echo started 5-1 last year but went 4-12 down the stretch. Echo is holding strong in a volleyball league with Helix and Powder Valley, both of which can play, and both of which have already swept Echo. Still, the Cougars are a quality 1A volleyball team that I think still makes the playoffs.

5. Hermiston cross country Last month: 2

There isn't a very good reason for the Bulldogs to drop in the rankings (at least they're still in, right?!), but the cross country season is more of a crescendo than a bellow. You want your runners peaking at the end of this month, not last month.

Hermiston Turkey Shoot upcoming

The 11th annual Turkey Shoot benefiting Hermiston's golf programs is scheduled for Nov. 21 at Big River Golf Course in McNary.

Check-in begins at 9 a.m. with a four-person scramble starting a half hour later. It costs $50 per person.

Make checks payable to HHS Golf Association and bring entries to Big River Golf Course or mail them to Bob Brinkley at P.O. Box 1444, Hermiston, OR 97838. Golf carts are not included.

ter drives, Coeur d'Alene scored two touchdowns, fumbled twice and punted once. Lundblad lost one after a short completion deep in Hermiston's end with 8:09 on the clock up 8-3, and again on its next drive when KC Hutchings couldn't hold on at the Viking 36.

Neither time Hermiston could capitalize with points, with Hermiston punting both times. After the second Bulldog punt following the Vikings' second second-quarter fumble, time-sharing sophomore quarterback Colson Yankoff bulldozed into the end zone from three yards out, then did the same for the two-point conversion and a 16-3 lead with 2:31 in the second quarter.

After a scoreless third quarter, Cayden Bonacci scored on a 13-yard screen pass early in the fourth to put the Vikings up 30-3. Hunsaker and Tucker Salinas gave the home fans something to cheer about, completing a 60-yard touchdown pass on a well-thrown post route on their first play of the following drive.

Coeur d'Alene added two more scores late, including a long fumble return touchdown when Hunsaker was stripped from behind.

putting a team that could (or should) have been in the top five, instead I'm going to use this space to talk about something I enjoyed or respected or thought was noteworthy. And that this month is the Echo football team. In Echo's second game of the year, a 44-12 loss at Lone, Cougars quarterback Klay Jensen left with a hip injury thought to be serious. Head coach Rick Thew was cautious with the junior, and had a backup plan heading into their game with Harper/Huntington. Jensen ended up being cleared to play and did so in Echo's 84-6 win. Then against Wallowa, it happened again, and this time it was serious. It was a dislocated knee this time, essentially ending his season and jeopardizing the beginning of the basketball season. In three weeks, Echo lost (or at the very least thought it lost) its quarterback, and both times was noticeably shaken by

it. But here's the part I love: They shrugged their shoulders, bowed their backs and kept playing. Wallowa was too much for the beleaguered bunch without its heart and leader, but Thew said Echo played the best any team from Echo has been that he's seen in a time in a 20-12 loss. You could just tell he had his heart ripped out for the kids. They've come together under a trying time and believed and battled and fought and clawed. You can't ask much more of teenagers, of people. I tip my cap to you, Coach Thew and the Cougars. Vince Lombardi was wrong. Winning isn't the only thing. Thank you for showing it.
