

Recreation department offers fall color, kayaking trip

The changing color of fall leaves and kayaking will come together during a spectacular day on water and land.

Hermiston Parks & Recreation presents Fall Color and Kayaking Lost Lake. Participants will enjoy views of Mt. Hood and be served a picnic lunch along the shores of the lake.

In addition, the guide will provide a tour along the Hood River Fruit Loop to see the changing of colors. Participants also will enjoy dining at a local restaurant along the loop.

The event is Saturday,

NEWS IN BRIEF

Hospital auxiliary to sell sports memorabilia

A sale of sports memorabilia, featuring jerseys and framed photographs, is planned by the Good Shepherd Medical Center Auxiliary.

The event is Thursday from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the hospital's pharmacy lobby, 610 N.W. 11th St., Hermiston.

Proceeds will go toward purchasing hospital equipment and nursing scholarships.

In addition, the auxiliary's next business meeting is that morning at 9:30 a.m. in Conference Room 1 at the hospital. Flu shots will be given to members from 9-10 a.m.

If interested in becoming a member of the auxiliary, stop by the hospital gift shop for an application. For more information, contact June Rosenberg at juner1942@gmail.com.

Food Truck Friday benefits HHS leadership club

Bring a hearty appetite and head to the Hermiston-Sandy football game early. The Hermiston High School Associated Student Body Leadership Club is hosting Food Truck Friday.

Food trucks and vendors will be stationed in the parking lot next to Ken-nison Field Friday, Oct. 9, from 3:30-6:30 p.m., adjacent to East Highland Avenue, Hermiston. People will be able to purchase everything from frozen yogurt to tacos.

Proceeds will raise money for the leadership group to participate in a polar plunge to benefit Special Olympics during an upcoming leadership conference.

For more information, call 541-667-6100.

New Hope hosts young women's event

A conference for students in fourth through 12th grades (as well as their moms and mentors) will feature music, a message and age-specific breakout sessions and activities. Hosted by New Hope Community Church, Made to Shine is Sunday, Oct. 11, at 2 p.m. at the Hermiston Conference Center, 415 S. Highway 395. There's a requested $5 donation at the door.

The event will include Sonflowerz, featuring sisters, Becca and Elisa Leander of Colorado Springs, Colorado, who started out writing songs and performing for their church youth group and local coffee shops in 1999. Now grown up and married, they have six albums, have toured with LifeWay Women, received two GMA awards and enjoy ministering to young women.

Nazarene church plans youth trip to berry farm

A youth field trip is planned to Bill's Berry Farm.

Hermiston Church of the Nazarene invites all teenagers to join them for corn maze fun, an apple sling shot, making apple cider and a wagon ride. The event is Saturday, Oct. 17, departing from the church at 7:30 a.m. at 1520 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston. The return time is estimated at 6 p.m.

The cost is $20. Those planning to attend need to register by Saturday, Oct. 10. For more information, call Janet Breshears at 541-571-0700 or the church office at 541-567-3677.

Altrusa hosts annual dinner, auction

Dozens of items will be up for bid during the Altrusa

International of Hermiston Dinner & Auction.

People may attend the silent and live auction free of charge. The dinner, which features chicken parmesan, lasagna, salads, breads and Italian cake, is $25 per person. Dinner tickets can be purchased at the Hermiston chamber or Cottage Flow-ers.

In its 36th year, the event is Saturday with doors opening at 4:30 p.m. at the Hermiston Conference Center, 415 S. Highway 395. The silent auction continues until 8:30 p.m. Dinner is served from 5:30-6:30, and the live auction kicks off at 6:45 p.m.

Also, there will be raffles all night long. A special $10 raffle features a $2,000 pre-paid Visa card. Less than 1,000 raffle tickets will be sold.

Money raised from the event will be used to support projects in west Umatilla County, Irrigon and abroad. Among the causes Altrusa supports are Domestic Violence Services, Martha's House, Open Table, Girls Night In, One Book One Community and the American Red Cross.

For more information, call Donna Moeller at 541-720-6551 or Shera Hopper at 541-571-6865.
