Helen M. Ellingson

Salem
June 4, 1920-October 31, 2015

Ellingson

Helen M. Ellingson, 95, died Saturday, October 31, at her home in Willson House, Salem, Ore.

Helen was born June 4, 1920, in Spokane, Washington, to Benjamin and Bernice Blakesley. She was raised in Spokane where she met and married her husband of 73 years, James Ellingson...

She was trained as a legal secretary, but was happiest in her role as wife and mother to their three daughters. They moved to Hermiston in 1946 and then to Eugene where Jim attended the University of Oregon to complete his Ed.D degree.

Helen enjoyed sewing and taught her daughters and others to sew through the 4-H program. There were many enjoyable family activities such as camping and traveling to the coast or Mount Adams...

Helen and Jim had fun visiting local festivities and the various fields of flowers that decorate the area.

Helen and Jim were active members of the Methodist Church and the Sons of Norway. After Jim's retirement, they traveled to Norway and other European countries...

Contributions can be made in her name to Willson House United Methodist Retirement Center or the United Methodist Church of Salem.
