Douglas L. Moyer

Hermiston

February 2, 1938-November 10, 2015

Douglas L. Moyer, longtime Hermiston, Oregon, resident, was born on February 2, 1938, in Emmett, Idaho, to parents Clyde R. and Maxine E. Brinson Moyer. He died on November 10, 2015, at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 77 years.

Moyer

When Doug was little his family moved to Hermiston, Oregon, where he was raised and attended school. He then joined the United States Air Force and served from 1955 until his honorable discharge in 1959. Doug was united in marriage to Judith A. Vondy on November 2, 1958, in Hermiston, Oregon. They lived in Boise, Idaho, for a time before returning to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1967 where they raised their family and worked.

Doug worked at the Wagon Yard, Northwest Motor Home, and later at the Umatilla County Fairgrounds before retiring. After retirement Doug was able to fulfill his lifelong dream of living in the mountains. They lived at Blake Ranch outside of Hepner for several years and Doug was able to work cattle drives and enjoy the outdoors. They then returned to Hermiston where they have lived for the past several years.

He enjoyed the mountains, hunting, fishing, and for many years showed and promoted Appaloosa horses. In 1976 Doug was awarded the Supreme Champion Medallion for his performance in the show ring with his Appaloosa, Scouts Red Eagle. This was only the third time the award had been presented. Doug was always a frog in a skillet, never one to sit still, and enjoyed all life had to offer.

A special thank you to James Schmidt, your care and compassion is greatly appreciated by our family.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Judy Moyer, Hermiston, Ore.; daughter Di Fordice and husband Bob, Hermiston, Ore.; son Douglas Moyer, Fayetteville, Ga.; brother Roy Moyer and wife Vicky, Milton-Freewater, Ore.; sister Loretta Dyer and husband Jerry, Hermiston, Ore.; grandchildren Dusty and fiancée Ashleigh, Tyler, James, and Lauren and husband Blake; and great-grandchildren Haileigh, Coleman and Benjamin.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Shari Schneider, and a brother, Frank Moyer.

A celebration of life gathering with military honors will be held on Saturday, December 5, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Senior Center, 435 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston, Oregon.

Helen Ruth Gabriel, 81, of Monitor died Friday, November 20, 2015, at her home in Monitor. A Celebration of Life service will be held at 11:00 am Wednesday, December 9, 2015, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 303 Church St., Silverton, Ore.

Mrs. Gabriel was born May 22, 1934, in Seattle, Washington, to William George and Florence Miriam (Stewart) Hedgecock. She was raised in San Francisco, where her father owned a frame shop. She attended Willamette University in Salem, Ore. On February 11, 1956, she married Morrow Kendal Gabriel in San Mateo, Calif. The Gabriels left California for his home state of Oregon in 1968, and settled in Monitor in 1970. They were married 26 years when Ken died on July 19, 1982.

Mrs. Gabriel studied home economics at Willamette University. She retired from her secretarial/librarian career at Monitor Grade School in 1999. At her retirement the school library was officially named The Helen Gabriel Library to honor all that she did to promote literacy.

She has been an active member of the Monitor Bible Church since 1970, doing the bookkeeping, preparing communion, the Sunday bulletin, and her favorite, Vacation Bible School. Helen dedicated many hours at the Oregon Gardens in Silverton at its inception, thus being named the first year as Volunteer of the Year. She also was the bookkeeper/secretary for the Monitor Rural Fire District from 1994 to the present.

Helen loved to bake most anything, and for many years baking and decorating wedding cakes, birthday cakes, graduation cakes and any other special occasion. As if that weren't enough, she loved to quilt, and did so prolifically! All of her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren have one of her quilts, as well as many babies in the neonatal unit at OHSU. Another of her loves was adventure! She made numerous trips to Alaska where son Bud has a cabin on the Kenai River. She was always ready for taking off on the river or the sea to catch salmon or halibut, then enjoying the fruits of their labors for dinner. She and best friend Shirley made seven trips to Alaska doing what they loved to do — seeing what's around the next bend in the road! The duo also traversed every back road in Oregon, and spent many summer days in Sisters at a family cabin there.

Surviving family include children Kim (Dennis) Simmons, Stanfield, Ore., Brent (Kathy) Gabriel, Canby, Ore., Bob (Jill) Gabriel, Silverton, Ore., Karen (Rob) Fennimore, Silverton, Ore., Bruce (Leona) Gabriel, Monitor, Ore., and David (Heather) Gabriel, Helix, Ore.; grandchildren Nate Simmons, Sasha Childs, Carly Kinney, Caitlin Gentle, Luke Gabriel, Adriana Perry, Isabella Gabriel, Helina Gabriel, Erik Fennimore, Nick Fennimore, Logan Fennimore, Stacy Kofron, Josh Templeton, Kendall Gabriel, Chelsea Andrew, Alex Duda, Blythe Gabriel, Paige Gabriel and Morrow Gabriel; and great-grandchildren Solomon Childs, Cameron Kinney, Robbie Gentle, Kendra Gentle, McKenna Gabriel, Ace Perry, Isla Kofron and baby Kofron due in March. She is also survived by her best friend and partner in crime Shirley Croghan, Mt. Angel, Ore.

She is preceded in death by husband Morrow Kendal Gabriel; parents William and Florence Hedgecock; and grandson Brent Jacob Gabriel.

Arrangements are by Unger Funeral Chapel.

Deloris Ann Rueber

Hermiston

May 3, 1952-November 26, 2015

Deloris Ann Rueber, 63, of Hermiston died November 26, 2015, at her home. A Celebration of Life service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 5, 2015, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop.

Rueber

Interment will follow the service at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton. Deloris was born on May 3, 1952, in Pendleton to Carba and Alba (Huckabee) Sisk. In 1971, she graduated from Pendleton High School. She received an associate's degree from Blue Mountain Community College and also from Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham.

She met Larry Rueber when she was 10 years old and they attended junior high and high school together. They started dating in 1975 and they were married a year later on May 15, 1976, at Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton, where they both attended church. For her first 20 years of marriage, she said her most enjoyable thing was watching Larry work. After she started attending yard sales with her friend Linda Storment, that became her enjoyment. Larry must have slowed down.

She worked for Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston for many years. She enjoyed bowling, gardening and going to yard sales. She also liked to travel. In 1999, they visited Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, France and Belgium. They also visited the Little Big Horn, Mount Rushmore and many other places around the U.S. She was a member of the Lutheran Church and Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. She cherished her friends, her sisters in sorority and her good friend Mary Earley. She always looked on the bright side of things and, as Larry would say, "I was blessed to call her my wife."

She is survived by her husband Larry Rueber of Hermiston; daughter Jennifer Rueber of Hermiston; grandson Jaeger Rueber; brother Ed Sisk; sister Carol Newton; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; son Kenny Rueber; twin brother Duane Sisk; and nephew Matthew Sisk. The family would like to thank Vange John Memorial Hospice in Hermiston for their wonderful care and support.

Memorial contributions in her memory can be made to Vange John Memorial Hospice in Hermiston, in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.
