OBITUARY

Lee David Brush
Scappoose, Ore.

November 17, 1930-November 24, 2015

Lee D. Brush, our beloved husband, father, grandfather and friend, passed away unexpectedly on November 24, 2015, with his wife Dee by his side.

Brush

Brush

Lee was born on November 17, 1930, in Stickler, Oklahoma. Leaving the family farm near Zillah in 1948, he enlisted in the Army and on his return he married Wana Purdom and settled in Pasco, Wash. Lee joined the Pasco police department working as a patrolman, detective and liaison for community relations for 25 years until his health forced his retirement.

In 1978 he married June Hayes until her death. In 2004 he married his current wife, Dee W. Brush (DeLores St. John). They made their home in Hermiston, Ore., until moving to Scappoose, Ore., last year.

Lee was preceded in death by his parents, John and Bessie Brush; son Jeffrey Brush; siblings Hazel (Art) Collins, John Jr., Rachel (Glen) Hendricks, Louis (Norma) Brush, infant Lucille Brush, and Wanda (Kenneth) Harper; and his late wife June Brush.

He is survived by wife Dee W. (DeLores) Brush of Scappoose, Ore.; daughter Jennifer Brager of Richland, Wash.; stepdaughter Karen K. Hayward; stepson Ron R. St. John; four grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

There will be a graveside service at City View Cemetery in Pasco, Wash., later in the spring, pending notification.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY, DEC. 7

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 7:34 a.m. received a report of drivers damaging the property and a berm that is part of an irrigation canal near All That Wood, 80764 Highway 395 N., Hermiston.

•A caller at 7:40 a.m. asked for a Morrow County Sheriff's deputy in the mornings to watch at Depot Lane and Southeast Division Road, Irrigon, for a newer white Dodge extended cab pickup with a 4-foot-long LED light bar and "Cummings" in the window that goes around a school bus every weekday.

•A Umatilla resident on Pomono Drive at 2:10 reported she was concerned about children getting out of school due to a Rottweiler dog that was at large in the area.

•An Echo resident at 2:54 p.m. called police "regarding the disposal logistics of a deceased horse."

•A resident on Northwest Oregon Avenue, Irrigon, at 7:44 p.m. reported someone took 30 of her pills for attention deficit hyperactivity disorder.

SUNDAY, DEC. 6

•An Irrigon caller at 11:59 a.m. reported a dog on Thomas Street digs in people's property and poop in their yards, and its owner does nothing about it.

SATURDAY, DEC. 5

•Goats escaped their residence on the corner of West Eighth Road and Washington Avenue, Irrigon, and at about 2:45 p.m. ended up in the yard of a neighbor, who called the Morrow County Sheriff's Office. A deputy responded and rounded up the goats.

•An Irrigon resident at 3:42 p.m. reported a female will not stop sending her harassing text messages. Law enforcement contacted both parties and advised them to stop contacting each other.

•A Umatilla-area caller at 4:20 p.m. reported dogs next door on Harbor Lite Drive killed her chickens the other day, and the dog owner said he would get rid of the dog, but he has not, and so she cannot let out her animals.

•A driver at 10:49 p.m. reported a Buick with three children in the back seat passed her at about 100 mph on South Edwards Road and Walchli Lane, Hermiston, while she was going about 90.

FRIDAY, DEC. 4

•A stranger at about 6:50 a.m. ran through the back yard of a Stanfield man's home on North Dunne Street, and when the man yelled at the stranger, he pulled out a knife. The resident called police and said the suspect wore jeans and boots.

•A resident of Shady Rest Mobile Home Court, 28716 Highway 730, Umatilla, told police at 10:05 a.m. someone stole his Russian .380-caliber pistol worth $350 around November 30.

•An Irrigon man at 11:14 a.m. reported a driver in a blue Toyota 4Runner came through Utah Avenue, spun the tires on the sports utility vehicle, gave him the finger and called him a foul name. The caller also said this may have been the same guy who tried to run him over before.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 4:13 p.m. received a report of domestic violence on Short Road, Irrigon.

•A white Honda car at about 5 p.m. ran another vehicle off Highway 730 just before entering Umatilla. The victim called police and said she did not crash but had to drive on the side of the road.

•Umatilla police at 8:57 p.m. received a call about a man running around in his underwear at the Tillicum Inn, 1481 Sixth St.

•One driver at about 10:45 p.m. cut off another on Highway 395 north of Hermiston, then the first driver flashed his lights, and the second slammed on the brakes. The first pulled into the parking lot of Platt Electric Supply, 80393 Highway 395 N. Hermiston, and the second followed, cursed and took photos of the other driver

THURSDAY, DEC. 3

•Irrigon residents after 3 p.m. reported someone broke into their home then broke into a gun case and safe, even cooked food and may have spent a night or two.

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report that scam callers pretending to be with Publishers Clearing House have bilked $800 from a Hermiston-area man in the last three weeks, and then continue to call him daily.

•A caller at 4:13 p.m. reported thieves have been stealing scrap metal from Buwalda Scrap Yard on Lauback Street, Hermiston, for the past six to eight months.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report after 6 p.m. from a caller in Irrigon who said a man threatened to burn down his trailer and also was coming for his dog.

•A Stanfield caller at 11:05 p.m. on North O'Brien Street reported a shirtless man was yelling and screaming. The man left before police arrived.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2

•Winter conditions contributed to plenty of vehicles sliding off roads, past stop signs and through intersections, and while there were fender-benders and crashes, few resulted in injuries. That includes a three-vehicle crash at 7:47 a.m. on the westbound side of Interstate 84 near Boardman, and a collision between a vehicle and semi-tractor at 9:53 a.m. in the same area.

•A Hermiston man at 3:38 p.m. reported his "ex" was making comments on Facebook about him, and he believed that was a violation of the restraining order that is in place

TUESDAY, DEC. 1

•An Irrigon caller at 10:57 a.m. complained about a dog that runs around West Seventh Road and fights with other dogs. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy issued a warning.

•A caller at Green Acres Park, 80542 Paterson Ferry Road, Irrigon, at 1 p.m. reported someone may have put sugar in his gas tank.

•A woman at 2:08 p.m. told Umatilla police she caught two people she knows burglarizing her trailer on Pomono Drive and they took off on foot.

•Horses were running at large in the area of Sagebrush and East Punkin Center roads, Hermiston.

•A caller from the Greenwood Resources tree farm, Boardman, at 5:26 p.m. reported people with flashlights were in two vehicles on the property. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy responded and trespassed them from entering the property.

•A woman at 9:55 p.m. reported someone came to her home on E Street, Umatilla, and tried to break into the room her son happened to occupy. She asked for police to come to the residence.
