OBITUARIES

Holly E. (Crane) Rogers
Kennewick, Wash.

September 14, 1965-December 20, 2015

Holly E. Rogers (Crane) was born in Hermiston, Ore., on September 14th, 1965, to parents Lyle and Shirley Crane. She died Sunday, December 20th, 2015, after a long 6-month battle with stomach cancer.

Rogers

She is survived by her husband Matt L. Rogers, son Taylor Rogers, daughter Hannah Rogers, sisters Monica Bauer and Cathie Lampson, and granddaughter Ellie Rogers. Holly worked most recently at Ling Medical office as receptionist for 15 years, which she loved. Her greatest joy was raising her children, spending time with them and her husband. She enjoyed her friendships with so many. She loved to go camping, boating, evenings out, and spending time with family and friends. She will truly be missed. Her wings were ready and our hearts were not.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, January 2nd, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at The Living Room Church, 1409 S. Garfield St., Kennewick WA 99337. A luncheon will follow.

Memorial contributions may be made to The Living Room Church building fund.

You are invited to please share a memory on the Tribute Wall at www.muelersfuneralhomes.com.

Agnes Mabel Riley Davis
Portland

March 15, 1925-December 19, 2015

Agnes was born in Bend, Oregon on March 15, 1925 to James "Frank" Riley and Hazel (Lutz) Riley. She attended her first nine years of school in Umatilla, Oregon, and graduated at Stanfield High School as the class valedictorian in 1943.

Davis

After high school she went to work in Pendleton, Oregon, where she met Corporal William F. Davis, who was in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II. They married in Riverside, California, on May 2, 1944, just before he shipped out for Okinawa.

Agnes was a homemaker and housewife during and following the war. Franklin Riley Davis, her first born son, was born at Ordinance, Ore., in October 1944, where there was a military hospital situated near the Umatilla Army Depot, west of Hermiston. William Fairchild Davis Jr. arrived June of 1947 with Joseph Glenn Davis following in July of 1948. The family moved to Massillon, Ohio, for a period before coming back to the Echo Meadows in 1958.

Marcus Anthony Davis

came into the world in May of 1962, in The Dalles, Oregon, where he and his mother stayed through Tony's graduation of high school.

Agnes loved animals! She had goats, cats, dogs and birds, just to name a few. She loved her sons and later their families.

Agnes passed away on December 19, 2015. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother at birth in 1945, sister Minnie "Frankie" Umbarger (1982), sister Penelope (Nellie) Welch (2014), and son Joseph (2000).

She is survived by a sister, Anna Louise Burchett of Stanfield, Oregon; her sons Frank and his wife Marilou of Riddle, Oregon, Bill and his wife Marlene of Springfield, Illinois, and Tony and his wife Terri of Gresham, Oregon; 14 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren.

Placement will be in early spring at the Hermiston Cemetery, the week of March 14th.

Arrangements by Gateway Little Chapel of the Chimes, Portland, Oregon.
