

OBITUARIES

Donald L. 'Don' Grauer

Hermiston

December 17, 1932-December 29, 2015

Donald L. "Don" Grauer of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on December 17, 1932, in Marcus, Iowa, to parents Leland and Lucille Dorr Grauer. He died on December 29, 2015, in La Grande, Oregon, at the age of 83 years.

Grauer

Don was raised and attended school in Marcus, Iowa, and then worked on the family farm. He was united in marriage to Patricia L. Rembe on June 14, 1954, in Marcus, Iowa. Don served in the United States Army and was stationed at Fort Leonard, Missouri, until his honorable discharge.

They moved to Vancouver, Washington, in 1960 and Don worked in the livestock yard in Portland, Oregon. They later lived in Proebstel, Battle Ground, and Goldendale, Washington. Don worked in real estate and owned a motel in Goldendale from 1972 until 1978 when they moved to Hermiston, Oregon. In Hermiston, Oregon, they owned the Dunes Motel, partnered in NW Livestock, and built the Big Red Mini Mart stores.

He retired and enjoyed bowling, fishing, hunting, and taking his grandchildren to sell watermelons and cantaloupe at the farmers market. Don was a longtime member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Hermiston, Oregon.

He is survived by his three daughters: Debbie Mutton, Goldendale, Wash.; Suzy Waters, Kennewick, Wash.; and Jill Barnes, Goldendale, Wash.; sister Eva Coblurn, Phoenix, Ariz.; six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Don was preceded in death by his parents, wife, brothers Eldon and Floyd, and sisters Lola, Vera and Thelma.

A funeral service was held on Monday, January 4, 2015, at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 515 S.W. Seventh St., Hermiston, Oregon. Burial followed at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Dennis L. Mills

Sagle, Idaho

August 5, 1944-December 29, 2015

Dennis L. Mills of Sagle, Idaho, was born in Prior, Oklahoma, on August 5, 1944, the third child to parents Dilford and Amy Mills. He died December 29, 2015, in Hayden, Idaho, at the age of 71 years, after a long battle with cancer.

Mills

The Mills family arrived in Hermiston in 1947, and worked for a number of years, as well as a dairy of their own. Being tall for his age, Dennis started in roofing when he was only 16, and went on to spend most of his life in construction work, building homes anywhere from Hermiston and Pendleton, Oregon, to Reno, Nevada.

He loved outdoor activities, and continued to enjoy fishing throughout his life. Dennis grew to be deeply spiritual, and might best be remembered for his healing ministry.

Dennis is survived by his wife Cheryl of Sagle, Idaho; daughters Lesa (Robert) Dennis of Keizer, Oregon, and Lori Mills of Portland, Oregon; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; brothers Randy and Steve Mills of Hermiston, Oregon; and sister Sharon Mills of Nyssa, Oregon. Dennis was preceded in death by his parents, nephew Justin, and brothers Jerry and Tom Mills.

At his wishes, there will be no memorial services. Contributions in his memory to Hospice of Northern Idaho, or any hospice of your choosing, would be greatly appreciated by the family.

Ardell Calvin Engelhart

Hermiston

July 15, 1926-December 20, 2015

Ardell Calvin Engelhart was born July 15, 1926, to Clarence and Ella Engelhart in Brainerd, Minnesota. He died on December 20, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 89 years.

Engelhart

Ardell attended grade school in Daggett Brook, Minn., and high school at Union College Academy. After high school

Ardell came out west with his family to Milton Free-water and attended Walla Walla College for about one year. He began working for Harris Pine Mills.

In 1952 Ardell met Margaret Peterson during a church roller-skating event. They married July 25, 1954, in the old Walla Walla SDA church. Margaret and Ardell had three sons, Mark, Kevin and Andrew, and one daughter, Linda.

During the early years of raising a family, Ardell owned and operated Power City gas station in Umatilla and later began well drilling with Roy French, becoming a trained and licensed well driller for the Hermiston area for 20 years. In the early '80s the Engelharts moved to southern California where Ardell drilled for oil for a few years before retiring to Vancouver, Washington.

While living in Vancouver, they attended the Orchards SDA church. They treasured their time there. After their retirement they did quite a bit of traveling in and out of the United States.

Ardell was happiest when out visiting friends and making new ones.

He knew no strangers. After retiring and before his stroke in 2009, he was always selling something and if you were in his company, he made sure you had opportunity to know all about his product. Besides being a busy salesman, Ardell enjoyed writing poetry, which he eventually would bring together into a book collection. He dearly loved all of his family especially his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Ardell spent his last five and a half years living at the Hermiston Regency Nursing Home. He was named their volunteer of the year in 2011. He enjoyed painting pictures, collecting pop cans, singing hymns and sharing his love for Jesus. He loved the staff and they loved him. He was a member of and attended the Hermiston SDA church and attended church for the last time the day preceding his death.

Ardell is preceded in death by both parents, Clarence and Ella; his four siblings Ruby Crowfoot, Alva Engelhart, Bernard Engelhart and Bernice Kirschenbauer; and his oldest son Mark Engelhart.

A memorial service for Ardell will be held Saturday, January 9, 2016, at 3:00 p.m. at the Hermiston SDA Church, 855 W. Highland Ave.

C.G. (Chuck) Glass

Hermiston

March 13, 1940-December 24, 2015

C. G. (Chuck) Glass, 75, of Hermiston passed away on Thursday, Dec. 24th, 2015, at Trios Hospital in Kennewick, Washington.

Glass

He was born on March 13, 1940, in Pocatello, Idaho, to parents James and Wilda Glass. James had immigrated to the United States from Scotland. Chuck was very proud of being a first-generation American and of his Scots heritage. His mother went to Prosser to care for her mother with Chuck and his sister Karen. His parents then divorced. After his mother married Lee Wyckoff the family moved to Hermiston. Brother Bill and sister Mary Ann joined the family. Chuck enlisted in the U.S. Navy after high school. He was stationed at Midway Island and Stockton, California, as a storekeeper. He was honored to be a veteran. After his service he came back home to Hermiston and married Carol Dicken. Son Tim and daughter Lori were added to the family. Later the couple divorced.

He was employed with Union Pacific Railroad for 41 years in the Carman Department. He also was a cook on the Derailment Crew at Hinkle. For many years he was the Santa and rode in on a 1920s railroad motor car to Maxwell Siding Railroad Museum.

In 1975 Chuck married Trisha Schuening and daughter Marcey came with her to the marriage. Son Eric was born in 1976. Together the family enjoyed fishing and camping at Jubilee Lake. Chuck also enjoyed hunting with Eric and a group of friends out of Ukiah. He loved to cook when family and friends got together. The couple celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary this year.

Chuck was honored as Scouter of the Year in 2006 from Blue Mountain Council and Oregon Trail District. For about 30 years he volunteered with the Boy Scouts of America Troop 676. He also volunteered in the Hermiston youth basketball and football programs with coaching. Some of his many activities included photography, Dutch oven cooking and participating in a mountain man club. He attended the Hermiston High football and basketball games for years as a fan.

He spent time with his veterans coffee group of friends Larry, Dennis and Bill. Rockey, his little dog, provided him with hours of companionship and laughter at his antics. He appreciated all that his friend Darrell did in taking care of Rockey during his absence. He also enjoyed their friendship and time spent together.

He was a member of New Hope Church in Hermiston and especially enjoyed the fellowship at the community hymn sings. The family thanks everyone who prayed for Chuck and Trisha during his long struggle these past months.

Survivors include his wife Trisha Glass of Hermiston, Ore.; son Eric and daughter-in-law Jaimi Glass of Albany, Ore.; daughter Lori and son-in-law Chindo Rodriguez, and son Tim Glass, both of Hermiston; daughter by marriage Marcey and son-in-law Steve Wornell of Hermiston; brother Bill Wyckoff of Shelton, Wash.; sister Karen Schank of Shelton, Wash.; sister Mary Ann and brother-in-law Ken Marcuson of Republic, Wash.; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and brother Jimmy Glass.

A private family burial will be held at the Hermiston Cemetery.

A Celebration of Life service with military honors will be held at New Hope Community Church, 1350 S. Highway 395, on Saturday, January 9th, 2016, at 1:00 p.m.
