David Reavis Mann
McAllister, Montana
December 19, 1942-February 2, 2016

Mann

David passed away at his home in McAllister, Montana, with his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris and David, grandson Gabe and his beloved sister LeeAnn at his side. He was born in Klamath Falls, Ore., to Peggy Lee Reavis and Walter Eschebeck. David was raised on a cattle ranch in Stanfield, Ore., and attended Hermiston High School where he was a star basketball player and made the OSAA All State Basketball Team in 1960, the first in the history of Hermiston High School.

David attended Colorado State University on a basketball scholarship and pursued his lifelong desire to become a veterinarian. He later received his master's degree in public health from the University of Michigan. David married Sherrill Hess after college and joined the Air Force. He was stationed in Tokyo, Tacoma, Wash., Ann Arbor, Mich., San Antonio, Texas, and Honolulu, Hawaii. While in Tokyo, he supervised and cared for the sentry dogs and traveled extensively to Vietnam to oversee their care. During those years, David and Sherrill had three children, Chris, Jill and David.

David retired from the Air Force in 1979 and established a successful veterinary practice in McMinnville, Ore. There he married his second wife, Elisabeth Hermsen. In 1996, David sold his practice and moved to his ranch outside of McAllister, Montana, where he lived out his life doing what he loved: hunting, fishing, traveling, visiting his children and grandchildren and farming. David was blessed with movie-star good looks and a personality to match. He made friends wherever in the world he went and was much loved by them and his family.

David and Elisabeth were very involved with the Child's Passport to Health, a foundation that sponsors children from Third World countries who have medical deficiencies and need to be housed and cared for in the United States while undergoing treatment. During the course of their participation in the foundation, they provided a home and care for eight children at varying times.

David is predeceased by his mother, Peggy Lee Mann, father Walter Eschebeck, stepfather Irvin Mann, his first wife Sherrill and his only daughter, Jill Thornton. He is survived by his wife Elisabeth, sons Chris (Tracey) and David (Kari), brother Linc (Pat), sisters LeeAnn (Don), Julie (Mark) and Debbie (Jammie), and seven grandchildren.

There will be a private service this summer. Donations can be made to the Child's Passport to Health: www.achildspassporttohealth.org.
