

Ask about playing at more than one event a day. You want to make sure you have the full attention of the musical act or DJ during your wedding.

How many weddings have you performed for in the past couple of years?

This answer may be one of the most important, as you want to make sure the company is experienced and up to the challenge.

Will you be providing the equipment and song

list? Can you take requests?

A “no” answer to any of these questions could lead to more work for you as you try to coordinate what will be played during your ceremony.

Do you only play one event per day?

You want to make sure you have the full attention of the musical act or DJ during your wedding.

Are you easy to get in touch with if I have questions throughout the music planning process?

A good musical act or DJ will surely answer “yes.” A good follow-up question is for a list of references just to make sure you can conduct a little follow-up research.

Do you also do announcements?

It’s a great bonus to have your wedding band or DJ make announcements throughout the night. That’s one less thing for you to worry about.
