

OBITUARIES

Raymond Guilson 'Ray' Morgan
Umatilla
July 16, 1925-March 18, 2016

Raymond "Ray" Guilson Morgan was born in Okanogan, Washington, on July 16, 1925, to parents Arthur and Stella Morgan. Ray died Friday, March 18, 2016, at his home in Umatilla, Oregon, at the age of 90.

Morgan

Ray was raised in North Puyallup, Washington, where he graduated from high school and then joined the Army Air Corps to become a 2nd Lieutenant, trained as a bombardier. After his military service he graduated from the University of Washington in 1949 with a Bachelor of Science in forest management. He worked in that field for a while before becoming a sales engineer with the Standard Oil Company. Later he bought Oakridge Golf Course in Elma, Washington. There were many more career and life changes for him over time.

On February 8, 1991, he married Faye "Doloris" Cole in Nampa, Idaho, and later made their home in Umatilla, Oregon.

Recently Ray was selected to participate in "Honor Flight" with a trip to Washington, D.C., honoring World War II veterans. Over Ray's lifetime he enjoyed boating, flying airplanes, golfing, building and repairing golf clubs, painting, and writing poetry.

He is survived by his wife, Doloris Morgan of Umatilla, Ore.; children Kathie (Wes) Hudman of Council, Idaho, Connie (George) Ziesemer of Washougal, Wash., Scott (Cathy) Morgan of Grayland, Wash., Renee Morgan of Lacey, Wash., Arthur (Bonnie) Stolze of Surprise, Ariz., and Randy (Kathy) Colhouer of Idaho City, Idaho; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Stella Morgan, two sisters and a brother.

Viewing for the family and friends will be held on Monday, March 28, 2016, from 10:00 a.m. until noon at Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. Funeral Services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Monday, March 28, 2016, at Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston. Burial with military honors will follow at the Sunset Hills Cemetery in Umatilla, Oregon.

Emma Sarah Roberts
Echo
July 13, 1929-March 12, 2016

Emma Sarah Roberts was born on July 13, 1929, at Poverty Flats on Cabbage Hill, east of Pendleton, Oregon, to parents Lester and Ina Palmer Shafer. She died on March 12, 2016, at her home in Echo, Oregon, at the age of 86 years surrounded by her family.

Roberts

Emma attended school on Poverty Flats before moving in with her grandma in Pendleton and graduating from Pendleton High School. She was well known for training and breaking horses in the Pendleton and Hermiston areas. Emma met Jack Roberts when his brother went to borrow money from Dad to take Mom out. Dad rode up on a horse, and Mom thought, "My tall handsome cowboy," until he stepped off the horse. She married Jack W. Roberts on July 10, 1958, in Waitsburg, Washington. They lived in Adams, Oregon, until 1961 when they moved to Echo, Oregon, where she has lived since.

Emma worked at the Pendleton Woolen Mills for 25 years, never missing a day of work. The last 10 years of Jack's life he drove her to and from work. It did not matter the age, all loved spending time on the well-known front porch. You could always find Emma drinking a cold one and visiting with her family and friends. She enjoyed puzzles and gardening.

She is survived by her children: Kenny and Debbie Roberts, Jerry and Marie Roberts, Tracie and Jake Broyles, Sunnie and Bill Wright, and Alvin Roberts; friends and neighbors Sheryl Morris and son Justin Morris, who Emma thought of as a grandson; sister Ruth Mead; 20 grandchildren; and twin great-grandchildren.

Emma was preceded in death by her husband, Jack Roberts; son Sheldon Rodney Roberts; and her parents.

A private burial was held at the Echo Cemetery, Echo, Oregon.

Jerry P. 'Pat' Ritchie
Hermiston
March 1, 1948-March 1, 2016

Jerry P. "Pat" Ritchie was born on March 1, 1948, in Poplarville, Mississippi, to parents Robert R. and Patricia Ledford Ritchie. He died on March 1, 2016, at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, on his 68th birthday.

Ritchie

Pat was raised all around the world. He earned a bachelor's degree in business and law. He entered the United States Army in May of 1965, seeing action in Vietnam. Pat served until his retirement in 2008 as a director at the Umatilla Army Chemical Depot with 38 years of service.

Pat married Perlita Solomon on July 16, 1992, in the Philippines. He enjoyed visiting with people, traveling, scuba diving, new adventures (he would "try anything twice") and was an avid reader who "liked to fish with no hook and a good book." He is survived by his wife: Perlita Ritchie, Hermiston, Ore.; sons Patrick H. Ritchie, Missoula, Mont., and Robert R. Ritchie and wife Dakota, Fairchild, Wash.; daughter Samantha S. Ritchie, Hermiston, Ore.; sister Cynthia J. Melon, Fayetteville, Ark.; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Pat was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Gary R. Ritchie; and a sister, Sandra M. Freebern.

A celebration of life service with military honors will be held on Saturday, March 26, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.
