

OBITUARIES

Irene Jeanette Young

Hermiston
March 25, 1925-March 25, 2016

Irene Jeanette Young passed away at Brookdale Assisted Living in Hermiston on March 25, 2016. She was born on March 25, 1925, in Seattle, Washington. We like to think she gave herself a birthday present by allowing herself to join her dear husband Willis McClellan Young, who passed away in 2004. They not only were eternal sweethearts but best friends.

Young

Irene had many jobs through the years but her career job was as the manger of lamps and china at Sears and Roebucks. She left that job in southern California to move to Lava Hot Springs, Idaho, where she and Willis owned and operated a KOA Campground. Irene was very industrious and was not afraid of working hard. Not only did she work full-time the majority of her life but also raised two daughters and was an excellent gardener. After moving to Hermiston she and Willis created a mini farm in which they gardened and raised goats and chickens. In their later years they moved to a smaller place but she continued gardening, even being seen out working in her garden with a cane. Her yards were always a masterpiece. Irene was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints where she served in many capacities. Her favorite was working in the Relief Society. She and Willis were sealed in the Idaho Falls Temple for time and all eternity.

Irene loved animals, especially dogs and goats. She was a farm girl at heart and dearly loved her time at Patch Work Acres, the name they gave their mini farm. In her later years she loved to listen to friends and acquaintances tell their stories about farm life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Willis Young; daughter Sharlene Young; father Arnold Herbst; mother Marie Herbst; brother Arthur Herbst III; and grandson Ted Callaway. Irene leaves behind two daughters, Darlene Gill of Crockett, Texas (Teddy), and Ilene Callaway of Kennewick, Wash.; seven grandchildren: Tim Callaway (Rose), Brian Barca (Barbara), Tammy Plunkett (Roy), Candice Barber (Keith), Tom Callaway (Sarah), and Trisha Judd. She also leaves 25 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind her sister Patricia Eckely of Burns, Ore., and many nieces and nephews.

Irene's funeral will be held on Wednesday, March 30, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 850 S.W. 11th St., Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

On Friday, March 25th, 2016, Timothy James Teraberry passed away in his home surrounded by his family. He was 57 years old.

Teraberry

Tim was born on May 5, 1958, in Walnut Creek, California, to Donald "Jack" Teraberry and Ravelta "Jo" Teraberry, being the eldest of two sons. In 1962 Jack and Jo moved their family to Idaho. Tim graduated from Vallivue High School in 1977 where he had played football, basketball and ran track.

He married Annette Sauvageau on November 26, 1982, in Caldwell, Idaho. They welcomed their first child, Stacia, in 1985 and their second, Nick, in 1988. They moved to Hermiston in 1988. Tim became a Beaver while attending Oregon State University. He graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in environmental science.

Tim was employed with Chemical Waste Management as a chemist for approximately 18 years. He was a member of the Oasis Vineyard church.

Tim was an outdoorsman, fishermen, hunter, a cyclist, a kayaker, trap shooter and music enthusiast. As a kid, Tim grew up with a great love for the outdoors, hunting and fishing with his dad and brother. Tim spent great quality time with both of his kids while boating, camping and attending all their many sports events as he volunteered at youth group and campus life during his kids' teen years.

Over the years, Tim accrued many new interests and hobbies, always keeping Annette on the go and laughing! Tim also enjoyed spending special times with his grandkids while making great memories. Tim's gentle spirit, quick wit and kind smile attracted people (and animals) to him, especially kids and teens. He touched so many lives and was a wonderful neighbor, co-worker, friend, son, papa, uncle, father and husband.

Tim is survived by his mother Jo Teraberry; wife Annette Teraberry; daughter Stacia; son Nick; brother Steve (Rebecca); grandchildren Makaiyla, Kamri, Kaden and Jaxon; and numerous cousins, uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews. Tim was preceded in death by his father Jack Teraberry in November 2015. There are so many other special people in Tim's life and list the too extensive to comprehend.

Thank you to all the family, friends and the community for the love and support during this difficult journey.

Tim loved the youth of Hermiston so in lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to YFC Blue Mountain / Hermiston Campus Life, 595 S. First St., Hermiston, OR 97838.
