

OBITUARIES

Richard G. 'Dick' Devin Sr.

Kennewick, Wash.

August 31, 1951-April 10, 2016

Richard G. "Dick" Devin Sr., 64, passed away in Richland, Wash., on April 10, 2016, with his three kids at his side. He was born in Jacksonville, Fla., on August 31, 1951, to Glenn and Darlene Devin.

Devin

He spent most of his childhood in North Bend attending high school there, then eventually transferred and graduated from South Umpqua High School in 1969. That same year, he joined the family business and Standard Oil. He married Sandra "Sam" Janssen in 1970. Later that year, they had their first child, Richard Jr., and over the next seven years added two more, Doug and Renee.

They lived in Myrtle Creek surrounded by both sides of the extended family until 1974, when they moved to Crescent City, Calif. In 1978, Devin Oil Company acquired the Arlington, Condon and Heppner bulk plants. Dick's father Glenn wanted to return his family to his childhood home area of Eastern Oregon where he loved the small town values and honest work ethic of the communities. Dick, his wife and kids would call Heppner home for many years with all three kids graduating high school there.

While the kids were growing up, Dick coached and supported all the local programs. He was an avid fan of watching his children playing sports and was often seen pacing the sidelines at a football game. He has many lifelong friends from the Heppner area.

Later in life Dick moved to Kennewick, Wash. Now, with eight grandkids, he was never lacking a sporting event or program to watch. He was so close with each of the grandkids, talking to each of them almost every day. He was proud of them and they were proud of him. Dick was still the president of Devin Oil Company, a company his dad started in 1952. In his adult life, Dick only had one boss — his dad. After buying the company from his dad, he greatly expanded the business throughout Eastern Oregon and Washington. Dick ensured the company was a huge supporter of all things local, especially for kids. Dick lived a very full life, having many great experiences through travel, car buying, golfing and huge sporting events. He was a friend to all, kind and generous beyond measure. He left a lasting impact on everyone who knew him.

He is survived by his father, Glenn Devin and his wife Dottie, Canby, Ore.; his sister, Diane McNaughton, Hermiston, Ore.; his sons, Richard Devin Jr. and his wife Tiah and their children Derek, Drake and Avery, Hermiston, Ore., and Doug Devin and his wife Stella and their children Matthew and Andrew, Kennewick, Wash.; and his daughter, Renee Wilkins and her husband Tim and their children Kannon, Kennisyn and Karver, Hermiston, Ore.

Dick was preceded in death by his mother Darlene. Graveside service was held on Friday, April 15, 2016, at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Made to Thrive at madetothrive.org or P.O. Box 684, Hermiston, OR 97838, or Heppner High School Booster Club, P.O. Box 67, Heppner, OR 97836. Trina Lee Eckley

Hermiston

May 25, 1954-April 5, 2016

On April 5th, 2016, Trina Lee Eckley lost her battle with cancer and passed away with her family around her.

Eckley

Trina was born on May 25th, 1954, to Jim and Rae Bevan, who moved to Hermiston when she was young. Trina was baptized into the Hermiston SDA church in March 1972. She has been a faithful member of the Hermiston SDA church and active with the youth and Pathfinder club for many years, even up until just weeks before her death.

Trina Bevan and Conrad Eckley were married in November 1972 at the Hermiston SDA church, becoming a member of the Eckley family. Trina and Conrad raised three children in Hermiston: Celena Veverka, Traci Riggs and Jared Eckley. Trina is survived by her husband Conrad, their three children, and two grandchildren as well as her sister Vickie Samson. She was preceded in death by her parents and brother Ken Bevan.

Trina has worked for various businesses in Hermiston and is known for being a loyal employee and having a strong work ethic. Most recently she worked at The Horizon Project as receptionist and administrative assistant. Trina began working there after having surgery for colon cancer. She said that the workers and the clients just got into her heart. Even when she was feeling sick and weakened by her cancer, she insisted on going to work because she loved the staff and clients. She often said that they made her feel part of something special, something that made a difference in people's lives.

Trina was an avid gardener and loved being outdoors digging in the dirt, planting and enjoying the fruit of her labor. Just days before her death she was talking about how she needed to be out in her garden getting it ready instead of sitting around being sick.

Trina loved musicals and old movies, which she shared with her children and anyone who was interested. She was an artist and seamstress, sewing shirts for Conrad, sewing wedding dresses and daily clothing, baby blankets, etc. Trina was a wonderful cook and often gave credit to her beloved mother-in-law, Lois Eckley, for teaching her. She loved camping and being in the woods, another love she shared with her family. In the last few years Trina and Conrad made many trips in their trailer to the mountains and beach, making the most of their time together and enjoying each other's company.

Trina will be remembered as a beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Through her illness Trina maintained her faith in God and believed that while God may not heal her now, he will heal her someday when she sees him face to face and he calls her name.

A memorial service will be held at the Hermiston SDA Church on Saturday, April 23rd, at 4:00 p.m.

All who loved Trina are welcome to attend.

Afton Fay Kendall

Hermiston

April 12, 1946-March 22, 2016

Afton Fay Kendall, age 79, of Hermiston, Oregon, passed away Tuesday, March 22nd, from complications of a long battle with diabetes. She spent the last two years of her life in Boise, Idaho, with her daughter Cami.

Kendall

On Easter Sunday, April 12th, 1946, a beautiful little bunny was born in La Grande, Oregon, to Stuart A. and Ellen E. Sanderson (Arnoldus). Afton was a straight-A student and an accomplished vocalist and violinist. At age 17, she was the youngest person to become a member of the Grande Ronde Symphony with which she toured Europe.

Afton was a proud woman who raised her two daughters in La Grande, without spousal support or public assistance. She never took a day off or vacation from work in order to provide for her family. Afton was known to repair her own television and fix her car with only a hairpin.

After moving to Hermiston, Afton worked in the office of Good Samaritan Nursing Home. Later she was the manager of an apartment complex for senior citizens.

St. Patrick's day was always special. It was when Afton met the love of her life, Sergeant Dale E. Kendall, on her first and only blind date. They were married in September of 1980 and were able to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary before his passing in 2006.

Even in the last year of her life, despite health challenges, Afton would always light up the lives of everyone she met with her smile and pleasant "Hello." She is survived by her daughters Cami Horton and Marteen Ward; sisters Pam Hamilton and Penny Broyles; granddaughters Kristen Venable, Holly Ward and Melissa Ward; stepchildren Dalene Faire, Lori Wise and Andy Kendall; and nephew and nieces Stephan Hamilton, Erika Yzaguirre and Lisa Hernandez.

The celebration of Afton's life will be held at Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, on Saturday, May 14th, at 10:00 a.m. followed by a graveside service at Hermiston Cemetery, and a brunch at Oxford Suites.

Thelma 'Rosalie' Seibel

Hermiston

October 11, 1928-March 17, 2016

Thelma "Rosalie" Seibel of the Stanfield/Hermiston area passed away Thursday, March 17, 2016, at Sun Terrace Assisted Living facility of natural causes. Rosalie was 87.

Seibel

Rosalie was born October 11, 1928, in Moberly, Missouri, to Marigold and Everett Ancell. She was preceded in death by brother Jimmy, sisters Pauline, Jeannie, Mary-Lou and Sharon, and also granddaughter Tammy Michele Weber. Rosalie will be deeply missed by her son Johnny Lee (Cindy) Seibel, daughters Clara Louise (Grant) Bruner and Buddie Jean Nelson, and brother Everett Wayne (Kris) Ancell, as well as her grandchildren Timothy John Bruner, Randy Wayne Seibel, Brian Lee Seibel, Tess (Seibel) Reedman, Nathan Seibel, Justin Morrell, Megan Ann Harris, Stacey Oschelarger and Nicole DeWall, and 16 great-grandchildren.

Rosalie was married July 20, 1947, to Ralph John "Bud" Seibel and lived on a farm in Stanfield, Oregon, where they raised their three children and her brother Wayne. Rosalie enjoyed the outdoors and spent many a day deer and elk hunting. She was known for shooting a bear out of a tree with her long bow.

Rosalie spent many years as an outstanding Moose Lodge member and became president of the women's auxiliary. On any given Sunday you could find her in the kitchen cooking a fantastic breakfast for her many longtime friends and family. There she became reacquainted with a friend, James

K. Bevans, whom she would spend the next 20-some wonderful, happy and loving years. Their time together was spent hunting, fishing, gardening and an occasional trip to the casino. Jim was taken from her in April of 2005.

Rosalie developed dementia and after a few years of being alone was moved to Hermiston to an assisted living home. She loved playing cards and making necklaces and earrings from her 5,000 and some beads.

Rosalie will dearly be missed and remain in the hearts of her family and many caring friends. A Celebration of Life will be held for Rosalie on Saturday, April 23, 2016, at 2:00 p.m. at the Crossroads Community Church, 350 N. Sherman St., in Stanfield by Pastor Michael Kinlock. Refreshments and food will be served following the service.

The family requests that memorial contributions be plants that can be placed in a bedding area at Sun Terrace Assisted Living Facility as a tribute to Rosalie for all to enjoy.

Please send condolences at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com.

Marie Binford passed on Monday, April 11, 2016, at her home, Sun Terrace in Hermiston, Ore.

Binford

Marie was a strong woman with a gracious countenance who listened and loved unconditionally. She enjoyed dancing, fishing, and spending time with her friends and family. Our hearts will be warmed by memories of her such as her smiling nod of agreement while in conversation.

Marie was born the third of six children to Thomas William and Mable (Coplan) Morris on October 8, 1920, in Rapid City, S.D. The family moved to Oregon after one year and eventually settled in Pendleton while Marie was in elementary school. Marie graduated from Pendleton High School in 1939 and married William (Bill) McCabe in 1940.

Marie and Bill moved to Hermiston and opened a small restaurant, the McCabe's Cafe, in 1948. After success it was relocated to a much larger space in 1962 and operated through the early 1980s. While in Hermiston, Marie and Bill raised four children. They were happily married until Bill's passing in 1969.

Marie married Robert (Bob) Binford in 1981. They enjoyed retirement and traveling until his passing in 2000.

Marie was a member of the Faith Presbyterian Church, a charter member of Eagles Auxiliary, VFW Auxiliary, UP Old-Timers Club, Red Hat Society, Professional and Business Women, and was boss of the year for Jaycee's.

She was predeceased by sons William and an infant son, granddaughter Mona McCabe, sisters Annie and Betty, and brother Tom.

Marie is survived by her beloved sisters Esther Richards and Ruth Pengally; her children, son Richard (Mauri) McCabe, son Dale (Jan Anderson) McCabe, daughter Susan Kalotay and daughter-in-law Sharon Knight; and her grandchildren Chester, Christina and Matthew McCabe, Andrew Kalotay, Catherine Howe, Scott Stevens, Angie Duff, and Chrystal Houghton. Marie is also survived by Wayne Street and Ruthie Montgomery, many nieces and nephews and eight great-grandchildren.

The family is very grateful for the loving care from the staff at Sun Terrace.

A memorial service was held Thursday, April 14, 2016, at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. A private family burial followed at Olney Cemetery, Pendleton, Oregon.
