

Day of Prayer event set for May 5

Area residents are invited to participate in the National Day of Prayer with a free, non-denominational event in Hermiston.

The Day of Prayer event will be Thursday, May 5, from 6:30-8 p.m. at Armand Larive Middle School, 1497 SW 9th St.

Organizer Rob Lovett said last year about 200 people attended, and this year they hope to increase that number. The service includes prayer time for the each of the seven "pillars of society": government, the military, the media, the business community, educational institutions, churches and families.

"We're going to be praying for different levels of government and society in general," Lovett said.

Worship music by the New Beginnings praise team will be interspersed throughout.

"I think the music is going to be very good," Lovett said.

The service is going to be broadcast live by La Ley 99.5 FM radio with Spanish translation.

Lovett said people of faith all over the country feel the nation is at a "critical point at this time" and it is important to pray for guidance for the country's decision-makers.

Wagons Ho: Oregon Trail runs through Highland Hills

Hermiston elementary welcomes covered wagon

A piece of the Oregon Trail rolled to Highland Hills Elementary School on Friday as the Meyers family brought a covered wagon to help students visualize their lessons.

The fourth-grade classes at Highland Hills are currently studying the Oregon Trail, and one Highland Hills family brought down a Conestoga-esque, custom built covered wagon pulled by two Belgian draft horses, Gus and Call. Students were able to see the wagon up close and ask questions of the Meyers family. The wagon belongs to Bill and Lorre Meyers, but three generations of the family were on hand to help with the demonstration. Both students in the family — second-grader Daniel Meyers and fourth-grader Laura Meyers — dressed in pioneer clothing during the activity.

As part of the Oregon Trail unit, students have also made butter, participated in Oregon Trail scenarios and will be hand-washing clothes with washboards.

"This is something fun

we do during testing, so they will test in the mornings and then have something fun to do in the afternoons," fourth-grade teacher Deanna Plum said Friday. "The kids love it."
