IRRIGON 16-7, HEP-
PNER 10-6 — At Irrigon, the Knights were able to extend their winning streak to a season-best seven games as they held off the Heppner Mustangs in a doubleheader on Saturday.

In game one, Irrigon (13-4, 8-1 SD6) the Knights were pushed to victory by leadoff hitter Fredy Vera, who finished 3-3 with a pair of home runs, three runs scored and six RBI. Vera's first home run was a two-run shot in the third inning and the second was a three-run shot in the sixth inning.

Heppner (2-11, 1-5 SD6) had some big performances of their own, headlined by Will Lutch going 4-5 with a run and five RBI. Tim Jaca and Kevin Murray each contributed two hits and combined to score five runs.

In game two, Heppner nearly pulled off the upset as Irrigon starting pitcher Austin Rice did not have his best performance. The usually-dominant Rice threw only four innings and walked five batters while allowing two hits and four runs. Vera pitched three innings in relief and gave up just a pair of runs in the top of the seventh inning to earn the win.

points, and teammate Caleb Jepsen won steer wrestling (4.6) while Treasure Valley's Dall Bean won breakaway (4.0) to round out the winners at the one-head rodeo.

Joining Parke and Tye with season titles for BMCC were Williams in the women's all-around and breakaway, Potter in bareback, Lewis in barrel racing and Leyva in goat tying.

The top three in each event qualify for the CNFR, and also making the cut for BMCC were Kenneth Haworth (bareback), Tye (tie-down), Justin Garland (steer wrestling), Chaise Robbins and Chase Hansen (team roping), Williams and Corey (barrel racing) and Quincy Pendergrass (goat tying).

Parke, Tye, Hansen, Potter, Williams and Lewis will be making their second CNFR.

Irrigon (10-7, 3-6 SD6) won the opener 16-6 in five innings but lost Cassandra Fleming to an ankle injury that took her out of Game 2 and likely the next couple weeks of action. With starters Mya Chapman and Bea Aguilera already out with injuries, the shuffled Knights lineup struggled in the second game.

Irrigon left the bases loaded twice in the 15-6 loss, and committed six errors in the field to help Burns (13-5, 6-3).

Irrigon hosts Heppner today at 4 p.m.

ECHO 3, GRANT UNION 0 — At Grant Union, the Echo Cougars defeated the Grant Union Prospectors for the second time this season in a Saturday afternoon match-up.

Echo (16-5, 11-1 EOL) loaded the bases right from the start in the first inning, behind singles from Cheyenne Hilliard and Erika Parks and a walk from Christopher. Two batters later, the Cougars got on the board when Hilliard scored on a passed ball, followed by Parks scoring on a fielding error by the Grant Union third baseman.

Those runs were all the Cougars would need because starting pitcher Mackenzie Gonzales kept the Grant Union bats quiet allowing just two hits and one walk over 5.2 innings with six strikeouts. Alyssa Ray threw 1.1 innings in relief and allowed one hit and two walks with a pair of strikeouts.

Hilliard, Kenzie Blankenship and Monique Montoya each had two hits on the day to lead the Cougars offense.

and then rebounded in game two to earn a doubleheader split with the Vale Vikings on Friday afternoon.

Echo (15-5, 10-1 EOL) had a chance to tie and possibly win game one, as they had the tying run on third and the go-ahead run on second base with two outs trailing 2-1 in the eighth inning. But Vale (13-5, 9-1) induced a groundout from Cheyenne Hilliard to end the game.

Kenzie Blankenship powered the Echo offense on Friday, going 4-6 at the plate with four runs, two doubles and two RBI.

MacKenzie Gonzales started game one for Echo and threw a solid eight innings allowing six hits, two unearned runs and one walk with 11 strikeouts. Alyssa Ray started game two and allowed six hits, three runs and two walks with five strikeouts in five innings.

TENNIS

CAPITAL INVITATIONAL, BOISE — At Boise, Idaho, the Hermiston Bulldogs girls tennis team kicked off the Capital Invitational on Friday with a three-match pool play on Friday.

Hermiston's top performer was Lindsey McAllister at the No. 3 singles slot as she came away victorious in all three matches. The No. 1 doubles pairing of Chy Peterson and Mackenzie Hill also had a successful day going 2-1.

"There is a lot more competition than we are used to in this tournament and it is a bit eye opening for some girls," said Hermiston coach Jason Sivey. "Although we lost quite a few matches today, we competed in all of them. I'm proud of the team for battling through and working hard to keep fighting against hard opponents."

Hermiston will continue the tournament today with bracket play, hoping to come away with plenty of success.
