

Stanfield couple reaches out to Ugandan kids

CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

Scott and Kelly Zielke of Stanfield and Judy Weidert of Athena will return to Uganda this summer to provide support at the Otino Waa Children's Village.

A Stanfield couple is returning to East Africa this summer to help support an orphanage in Lira, Uganda. Scott and Kelly Zielke learned about the needs of Otino Waa Children's Village during a missionary trip in 2013 with other members of the Stanfield Baptist Church.

The Zielkes have been active in church and outreach through Bible studies and leading worship music over the years. However, Scott said participating in the mission trip further impressed on his heart about the importance of reaching out.

"When I learned more and more about the orphanage, it seemed to be the right thing to do," he said. "It wasn't just another Bible study, it was actually going out and doing something."

The couple invites the community to attend a concert fundraiser to support efforts to create a chicken farm for the orphanage.

The Zielkes, along with Judy Weidert of the Athena First Christian Church, will head to Uganda in June 23 through July 7. The group also plans to take books to help stock the library at the children's village. People may help support that effort by donating new or slightly used books that would be appropriate for kids in kindergarten through 12th grade.

The fundraising event features a band of local musicians. The concert is Sunday at 5 p.m. at the Stanfield Baptist Church, 310 E. Wheeler Ave.

For more information, call Scott or Kelly Zielke at 541-571-8153. For more about the children's village, visit www.otinowaa.org.
