LOG:

9:59 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office responded to a 9-1-1 call about a prowler trying to get into a house on Patriot Lane, Hermiston. A deputy did not find any suspect.

10:32 p.m. - Morrow County sheriff's deputies responded to reports of gunshots near the Shell station on Highway 730, Irrigon. Another caller at 10:52 p.m. reported someone was setting off bombs around Southeast Fourth Street, Irrigon. The investigation revealed the cause was fireworks.

TUESDAY

11:05 a.m. - A Hermiston man told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office someone stole his kayak and was trying to sell it at the Irrigon Shell station.

12:06 p.m. - Umatilla police received a call about possible domestic violence on Walla Walla Street.

3:14 p.m. - Umatilla police received a report that a woman suffering a delusion tried to drown the bird she owns because she thought the pet was on fire.

7:55 p.m. - Law enforcement received information that transients are living in trees behind Midway Apartments on Joy Lane and Highway 395, Hermiston, and could be involved in drug activity.

MONDAY

1:29 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to a call from a 16-year-old boy in Irrigon who reported his father and mother were fighting. Law enforcement, though, found this to be verbal only and gave the father a "courtesy ride" from the home.

2:43 a.m. - A 9-1-1 caller reported someone in a white Chevrolet Suburban at G & S Tire Factory, 535 N. First Place, Hermiston, shined the vehicle's lights into their yard.

7:23 a.m. - A street sign on East Theater Lane, Hermiston, was the victim of a hit-and-run. A caller told police he did not see the crash but the sign was in the yard.

11:49 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office began an investigation into a possible burglary at the used car dealer Irrigon Motors, 290 W. California Ave., Irrigon.

1:09 p.m. - A woman told

Hermiston police someone opened a Facebook account in her name and posted explicit photos of her without her permission.

5:16 p.m. - A Hermiston woman on West Quince Avenue asked to speak to an officer about a home invasion and finding "something weird" in her house.

10:27 p.m. - Hermiston police warned people in a white Chevrolet Impala on Northeast Willow Court to turn down their music.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS SUNDAY

• Stanfield police arrested Jackie Laverne Wilson, 56, of 490 N. Harri-man St., Stanfield, for driving under the influence on intoxicants and possession of methamphetamine.

• Hermiston police arrested Nicolas Garcilazo, 24, no address provided, for second-degree disorderly conduct, harassment, and possession of cocaine.

• Oregon State Police arrested a Mesa, Washington, man for driving intoxicated after he crashed late at night near Umatilla. Corrie Lynn Tipsord, 31, crashed a red Ford four-door car around 11:45 p.m. at the intersection of Interstate 82 and Interstate 84, according to Oregon State Police. State police Sgt. Mark Banks took Tipsord to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, for treatment of an injury, then to Umatilla County Jail on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants and failure to drive within a lane.

SATURDAY

• Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Christopher Allen Cooley, 33, of 242 E. Main St., No. 204, Hermiston, for unauthorized use of a vehicle, third-degree mischief, possession of methamphetamine, and resisting arrest.

• Umatilla police arrested Luis Alberto Roman, 20, of 210 Klickitat Ave., Umatilla, for possession of methamphetamine

FRIDAY

• Hermiston police arrested David P. Bounxaysana, 41, of Hermiston, for theft of mislaid property, possession of methamphetamine, felon in possession of a weapon, and carrying a concealed weapon.
