

IN BRIEF

Tee-off for the Fourth of July

A pair of Fourth of July weekend golf tournaments are planned in Heppner and Umatilla.

•The Family Fun Day Golf & BBQ is Saturday, July 2, at 2:30 p.m. at Big River Golf Course in Umatilla. The nine-hole four-person scramble costs $10 for adults and $7 for juniors. Power carts can be reserved for $13. All golfers 12-and-younger can tee-off from the special forward tees. Also, a long drive contest is planned. For more information, call 541-922-3006.

•The Fourth of July Golf Tournament is Sunday, July 3, at 9 a.m. at Willow Creek Country Club in Heppner. The four-person scramble costs $60 each, which includes green fees, lunch and beverages. Power carts must be reserved by calling 541-676-5437. Also, a putting contest will run throughout the day.

Proceeds from the event are donated to the Jason Halvorsen and Mike Matthews Scholarship Funds and the Ione Fourth of July Celebration Fund. To register or more information, call Russell Seewald at 541-422-7466 or Craig Holland at 509-330-0297.

Beep Baseball goes to bat for vision center

Instead of asking if the umpire is blind, the baseball players will be.

The Seattle South King Sluggers, a visually impaired and blind team, will take on the Tri-Cities Dust Devils. An affiliate of the San Diego Padres, the Class A team will be blindfolded as they play Beep Baseball against the visually impaired team.

A modified game, an over-sized softball beeps and the base posts buzz. Players will have spotters to help direct where the ball is. The purpose of the event is to educate the community about adaptive sports for the blind and visually impaired.

A fundraiser for the Edith Bishel Center, the event is Saturday, July 2, at 6:15 p.m. at GESA Stadium, Pasco. Tickets are $25 for adults and $20 for kids. The ticket includes the Beep Baseball game, dinner and upper box seating for the regular Dust Devils game against the Everett AquaSox that follows at 7:15 p.m.

Located at 628 N. Arthur St., Kennewick, the Edith Bishel Center serves the blind and visually impaired in southeastern Washington and northeastern Oregon. It offers training, education, products and resources for the visually impaired community.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact 509-735 0699, daniel@edithbishelcenter.org or visit www.edithbishelcenter.org.

Bulldog lacrosse puts five on all-conference

Christiansen chosen for first-ever All-Star game

By ERIC SINGER
Staff writer

Five Hermiston Bulldogs made the cut on the High Desert League's all-conference rosters following the 2016 season.

The Bulldogs placed junior attacker Brady Christiansen and junior midfielder Tucker Salinas on the all-conference second team and senior attacker Javier Garcia, and sophomore defensemen Tayler Arnold and Jake Palmer were named as honorable mentions. As a team, Hermiston went 6-10 overall playing as an independent this season.

Christiansen, a third-year varsity starter for the Bulldogs, was happy to see several teammates join him with all-conference recognition.

"It shows we're moving along and growing as a program," he said. "Now we need to just take that next step."

The postseason honors did not stop there for Christiansen, Hermiston's Brady Christiansen draws contact from Lincoln's Blake Phillips (18) in a game this season in Hermiston. Christiansen and teammate Tucker Salinas were selected for second team all-conference honors this season. Christiansen also was selected to play in an all-star game earlier this month.

however, as he was chosen to compete in the first-ever OHS- LA All-Star Game that was played on June 4. The game took place prior to the 2016 state championship game in Beaverton, where Christiansen's Blue Team earned a 9-8 victory over the White Team.

"It felt amazing to be part of history," Christiansen said. "Playing on that field was great and it was an honor to get to play with the best players in the state of Oregon. We're trying to build up the sport here and it was a cool experience."

The Bulldog junior stuck around following the game to watch the state championship game between Beaverton and Jesuit, which Beaverton won with a score of 9-8. He said aside from the entertainment of the game, he took some mental notes of some things to help improve his game and his team in 2017.

"Just the intensity level was off-the-charts," he said. "I watched how the players were moving, passing quickly and always getting position and staying aggressive. They played as a team and not as individuals, which is something we need to do more."

Hermiston falls in district title game

By MATT ENTRUP
Staff Writer

On Monday the 10/11 year-old Triangle all-stars (made up of participants in communities between Pendleton and Milton-Freewater) narrowly defeated Hermiston, 21-19, for the District 3 championship.

With both teams' pitchers struggling to find the strike zone, Monday's championship featured just two hits by each team and a combined 34 walks and nine hit batters.

Rian Woodard had a double for Hermiston, and Shayanne Martin added a single.
