OBITUARIES

George N. Trotter Sr.
Hermiston

September 18, 1944-July 3, 2016

George N. Trotter Sr. was born on September 18, 1944, in Nashville, Tennessee, to parents Ewing and Bertha Whittle Trotter. He died on July 3, 2016, at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 71 years.

Trotter

He was raised and attended schools in Tennessee. George was united in marriage to Dorothy Ramsey on October 9, 1965, in Milton Freewater, Oregon. They lived in Pendleton, Oregon, until 1966 when they moved to Tennessee. They moved to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1969 where they have lived since.

George worked for a short time at Marlette Homes and then for the city of Hermiston, Ore., as a police officer and fireman/EMT. He began his career as a conductor for the Union Pacific Railroad in 1973 and it continued for 31 years until his retirement in 2004.

George enjoyed hunting, fishing, music, playing on his computer, his dogs, and most of all cherished time with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Dorothy

Trotter, Hermiston, Ore.; sons Dennis Trotter, Camas, Wash., and George Trotter Jr., Hermiston, Ore.; brothers Danny of Missouri, Henry of Idaho and Jack of Tennessee; sisters Mary, Linda and Martha, all of Tennessee; granddaughters Steffany, Kelsey and Rachael; great-grandchildren Colton, Hailey, Bryson, Noah and Luke; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

George was preceded in death by his parents, siblings Dorothy, Charles, Joe and Jimmy, and an infant sister.

A celebration of life service will be held on Friday, July 8, 2016, at 1:00 p.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions in George's memory to the Hermiston Little League.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

SUNDAY

4:12 a.m. - A pre-teen boy in Boardman told law enforcement his stepfather was fighting with his mother at their apartment on Tatone Street.

9:38 a.m. - Morrow County law enforcement responded to a call about a wife in Boardman who slapped her husband several times, took children and threatened to kill herself.

10:55 a.m. - A red Chevrolet S-10 pickup dumped roofing material at 10th Street and Utah Avenue, Irrigon.

10:42 p.m. - Boardman police responded to a report of a female who was the victim of an assault.

SATURDAY

12:54 p.m. - A gray GMC flatbed truck dumped a bag of ammonium sulphate in a driveway on Southwest Second Street, Irrigon. The property owner reported he put the substance into his garbage before realizing what it was. Irrigon firefighters removed the substance from the road.

2:20 p.m. - Multiple callers reported a black sedan westbound on Interstate 84 near Boardman rolled several times. Local emergency agencies responded. There was no further report.

3:36 p.m. - A Heppner woman reported a caller from Jamaica tried to scam her and her husband out of money.

6:01 p.m. - Scam callers tried to get a Lexington man to let them access his computer, but he called law enforcement instead.

FRIDAY

11:03 p.m. - An Irrigon caller reported people were outside at 2 a.m. on South First Street screaming "they were going to stab someone" and one person was looking for "Joe" to buy drugs from. The caller said he felt threatened.

6:05 p.m. - Firefighters responded to a combine fire on Lindstrom Lane, Lone.

7:31 p.m. - An older man followed a woman into the restroom at Don Baxter Skate Park, 8 N. Main Ave., Irrigon.

THURSDAY

3:50 a.m. - The Boardman ambulance transported a 14-month-old child to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston, after it had a seizure.
