

OBITUARIES

Frances E. 'Sis' Papineau Beck

Hermiston
February 8, 1927-July 1, 2016

Frances E. "Sis" Papineau Beck passed away on July 1, 2016, in Hermiston, Oregon, from complications after a stroke, surrounded by family and friends at the age of 89 years. She was born on February 8, 1927, in Austin, Oregon, to parents Agnes Schoonover Papineau and Frank Papineau.

Beck

Frances went by "Sis" most of her life due to being raised with five brothers. She was raised in the Lexington and Heppner, Oregon, area. Frances married William "Bill" Beck on November 30, 1943, in Hood River, Oregon, at the age of 16. They had two daughters, Donna and Phyllis. They were married for 58 years when Bill preceded her in death in 2001.

Frances was a homemaker, daughter, sister, mother and grandmother, and always a good friend to all she met. She loved to sew, cook, and raise flowers. Several grandchildren made birdhouses with her help. Having been raised around sawmills, she loved the smell of fresh cut wood.

She is survived by her daughters Donna Van Zante and her husband Wayne, Clarkston, Wash., and Phyllis Mayes, Hermiston, Ore.; brothers Ray Papineau and wife Gay, and Earl Papineau and wife Edith, both of Lexington, Ore.; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and three brothers, Freddie, Wayne and Dale Papineau.

A graveside funeral service was held on Saturday, July 9, 2016, at the Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, Oregon. A luncheon will follow at the Rebekahs Lodge in Lexington, Ore.

Those who wish may make contributions in Frances' memory to St. Jude Children's Hospital at stjude.org.

Jean (Rauch) Pardue

Boardman
October 28, 1926-July 6, 2016

Jean (Rauch) Pardue died Wednesday, July 6, 2016, at Good Shepherd Medical Center in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 89.

She was born Oct. 28, 1926, in Echo, Oregon, to parents Julian and Irene (Moenhke) Rauch. Jean went to school in Lexington, Oregon, and graduated from Heppner High School. After graduation, she attended Whitman College where she studied voice. After a year she enrolled in a business college in Spokane, Washington. While there she continued voice lessons at Gonzaga University.

Jean met her husband, David J. Pardue, in Spokane. They were married on May 28, 1948, in Hermiston at the Trinity Lutheran Church. After David was discharged from the service, they made their home in the Hermiston area. Jean concentrated on raising their children and being a homemaker. When the children were older, she started working at the Stanfield Library, then at the Hermiston Library followed by PGG and retiring at age 70 from Pioneer Implement. Later Jean moved to Irrigon and finally to Boardman.

Jean enjoyed singing, gardening, reading and travel. Her Christian faith had also become a very strong part of her life.

She is survived by her son, Gary Pardue of Hermiston; daughters Renee Wilber of Pendleton, Christine Miller of Redlands, Calif., and Theresa Pardue of Boardman; six grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David Pardue; son Jeffrey Pardue; grandson Chad Harding; brother Irvin Rauch; and parents Julian and Irene Rauch.

Private family burial was held at the Hermiston Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to any no-kill animal shelter.

Romana Ramirez

Hermiston
August 9, 1928-July 4, 2016

Romana Ramirez of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on August 9, 1928, in Marquez, Texas. She died on July 4, 2016, in Hermiston at the age of 87 years.

Romana was raised and attended schools in Mitchell, Nebraska. She married Frank Deleon Ramirez on January 10, 1948, in Mitchell. They lived in Sidney, Nebraska, until moving to Hermiston in 1964 where they have lived since. Romana stayed at home to raise her children until they were in school.

Romana worked full-time as a nurse's aide at Good Samaritan Center, and while working attended Blue Mountain College to acquire her LPN nursing degree. She continued working as a nurse at Good Samaritan Nursing Home until retiring in 1990.

Romana was a member of Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church where she was active in Catholic Daughters. She was also a former member of the Eagles Auxiliary # 2909. She enjoyed gardening, quilting, sewing, crocheting, and most of all time with her family.

Romana was a loving wife, mother and grandmother who always put the needs of others before her own. She was supportive, nurturing, a hard worker and had a wonderful sense of humor. She was known for her words of wisdom and her family dinners.

She will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. Her family and loved ones know her to be a saint walking among us whose heart, body and soul are unparalleled, and feel certain God received her with open arms.

She is survived by husband Frank Ramirez, Hermiston; sons Frank Ramirez II (Kathy), Hillsboro, Ore., and Tom Ramirez (Michelle), Hermiston; daughters Joan Rawson (John), Damascus, Ore., and Marian Ellwanger (John), Umatilla, Ore.; brothers Victor Hernandez, Mitchell, Neb., and Lou Hernandez, Omaha, Neb.; sisters Jenny Herrera and Julia Castillo, both of Mitchell, Neb., Connie Slenker, Dover, Pa., and Mary Kresha, San Antonio, Texas; 14 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Romana was preceded in death by her daughter, Annette Quick.

Recitation of the rosary was held on Saturday, July 9, 2016, at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston, and Mass of Christian burial followed. Burial was at the Hermiston Cemetery.

Contributions may be made in Romana's memory to Our Lady Of Angels Catholic Daughters.
