call from someone claiming to work for “Publisher’s Clearing House.” He also said he wrote down “quite a bit of information” and wanted someone to call him.

10:47 p.m. - Someone left a trailer with a riding lawn mower in a yard at Westfall Septic, 78131 Highway 207, Hermiston.

WEDNESDAY

3:04 a.m. - A Hermiston woman on Northwest 12th Street reported a burglar came through the back window and stole $500 in change sometime between 5 p.m. and 2 a.m.

6:56 a.m. -Someone stole an 8-foot-by-12-foot metal frame and chassis for a flatbed trailer from Fenders By Enders, 1845 N. First Place, Hermiston.

11:03 a.m. - An administrator at the Guardian Angel Homes assisted living facility in Hermiston reported one resident punched another in the stomach, but no medical treatment was needed.

11:13 a.m. - A woman asked for an officer to come discipline a disrespectful child at Sunset Park in Hermiston. She said it was not her child, but the child’s mother was also at the park.

11:40 a.m. - Stanfield police received a report about a delusional man knocking around a cat in a pet carrier on South Main Street.

11:59 a.m. - A Hermiston woman reported a neighbor is constantly yelling at her and her kids when they are outside playing at their home on East Wilshire Avenue. She wanted an officer to come to the house.

At 12:03 p.m. on nearby Northeast Third Street, a woman reported a 12-year-old boy comes to her house and yells profanities and that he is not afraid of her. That woman also requested contact.

12:53 p.m. - A big dog locked inside a Red Kia in the Hermiston Big 5 parking lot was reported to police by an anonymous caller.

1:16 p.m. - A Hermiston-area man reported someone hacked his Facebook account and posted fake photos of him and want him to pay money.

13:48 p.m. - The tenant that left a home on Diagonal Road, Hermiston, also left behind three goats.

6:27 p.m. - A man living on Michaels Lane, Hermiston, reported someone just blew his mailbox to pieces with an explosion powerful enough to rock the house. Nothing was on fire, he said, and he saw no one around the mailbox before or after the explosion.

7:50 p.m. - A caller told the Morrow County Sheriff’s Office his neighbors on Wagon Wheel Loop, Irrigon, were shooting guns in the direction of another neighbor’s house. A deputy talked to the suspect and found a different resident to the east was setting off fireworks.

8:43 p.m. - A woman reported her purse was stolen out of her shopping cart at Fiesta Foods, Hermiston, while she was loading her groceries, and asked for police contact.

11:53 p.m. - A bartender at Midway Tavern, Hermiston, reported a male started a verbal altercation with two others inside the bar and then began running around in the road on Highway 395. He had been at the bar for about 5-6 hours, had about 3 beers and had been playing pool, but she didn’t know his name. The other bartender was keeping an eye on him.

11:59 p.m. - A woman said she heard a fight at one of the entrances to Sundial Apartments, 1650 W. Sunland Ave., Hermiston, but couldn’t see anything.

TUESDAY

1:52 p.m. - A mail carrier asked for a welfare check for a man on West Hermiston Avenue because his mail is piling up.

5:54 p.m. - Two “kids” looked like they were trying to get into vehicles in the Safeway parking lot, according to a caller, and were walking across Highway 395 on North Fourth Street. At 6:24 p.m. a man reported his car had been stolen after it was parked there since 8 a.m.

6:37 p.m. - Scammers trapped another local victim. A Stanfield woman reported two men pretending to be “Capt. Holloway and Lt. Doyle” with the Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office scammed her out of more than $900. The sheriff’s office has no such captain or lieutenant.

8:48 p.m. - A woman on Northwest 11th Street, Hermiston, reported she found a possible pipe bomb in her mailbox and moved the item into her house.

9 p.m. - A resident on Chukar Circle, Umatilla, complained about the neighbor’s pit bull dog always at large.
