

BRIEF CASE

Bank of Eastern Oregon elects officers

Hermiston resident George Koffler was recently elected chairman of the Bank of Eastern Oregon board of directors.

The bank made an announcement after the recent shareholders meeting in Heppner. Bank of Eastern Oregon is a subsidiary of BEO Bancorp. In addition, Joel Peterson of Ione was named vice chairman.

Koffler joined the board in 1993. He retired from employment with the bank in 2012 after a career that spanned 32 years.

The Bank of Eastern Oregon operates 13 branches and five loan production offices in 12 Eastern Oregon communities and in Pasco, Washington. For more information, visit www.beo-bank.com.

Bank collects school supplies for students

People can donate school supplies at the Bank of Eastern Oregon to be distributed to local elementary schools.

The Bank of Eastern Oregon is serving as a drop site in all of its 13 branch lobbies to help provide items to students in need.

In addition, each branch will offer a drawing for backpacks filled with school supplies for some lucky students. People don't have to be customers to be eligible for the drawing.

Local branch locations include Boardman, Heppner, Ione and Irrigon. The collection continues through the month of August. For more information, call 541-676-0201.

Stand offers local fruits, vegetables

The public can purchase local fruits, vegetables, berries and more at the Boardman Produce Stand.

Recently re-opened, it operates seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. on the corner of Northeast Front and Third Streets, Boardman.

The project is a result of the Boardman Community Development Association with financial assistance provided by Morrow County. They are renting the stand from Bob Walchli Farms.

Jamie Nasario brings blues to park series

With a soulful voice and bluesy repertoire, Jamie Nasario captures the classic vibe from the '50s and '60s while still maintaining a modern flavor.

The Echo woman, who is backed by guitarist Luke Basile and Dennis "Too Short" Rogers on drums, will perform during the upcoming Music in the Parks. The public is invited to hear the acoustic trio Monday at 7 p.m. at Boardman Marina Park. There is no admission charge.

People are invited to bring a picnic and a blanket or chair and enjoy the music. Also, concessions will be available for purchase from Judy's Chuck Wagon.

The free park series alternates each Monday between Boardman and Irrigon marina parks.

It runs through Aug. 22. For more information, call Tami Sherer at 541-571-0844 or Renee

Couchman at 922-1560. For more about Nasario, including music samples and how to purchase her debut album, visit www.jamienasario.com.
