Linebacker Club huddles with coach

Calling all football fans, the Hermiston Linebacker Club is talking about the Dawgs' 2016 season.

David Faeteete, Hermiston High School football coach, will make a presentation at an upcoming no-host luncheon. Bulldog fans are invited to attend Thursday at noon at Desert Lanes, 1545 N. First St., Hermiston. The meal is $11 for members and $13 for non-members.

Faeteete will discuss the team's Sept. 2 loss to the Union Titans. In addition, he will talk about Hermiston's upcoming match-up against the Bengals at Lewiston, Idaho.

Those planning to attend are asked to RSVP today by 3 p.m. by calling 541-567-5215.

SAFETY:

needed an ambulance ride from Love's Travel Stop, 78665 Tower Road, Boardman, to a hospital when food would not dislodge from his throat.

2:34 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report that a man two hours ago was in a woman's house on Meyers Road, Echo, and the woman ran him off when she came home. The suspect left in a white pickup and could be connected to another criminal case.

3:05 p.m. - An intoxicated man tried to enter vehicles in the parking lot at Hermiston Cinemas, 355 W. Theater Lane, Hermiston. Police did not find a suspect.

4:49 p.m. - Two people tried to steal items from a backyard on East Cherry Avenue, Hermiston, but they ran when the home's occupants arrived and one entered the yard.

6:47 p.m. - A caller asked Hermiston police to check on the welfare of a 3-year-old boy on West Madrona Avenue who locked himself in his mother's van and would not come out for more than 10 minutes. A neighbor coaxed the child out, the caller said, while the mother never came out of the house to get her son.

8:17 p.m. - Umatilla police received secondhand information of a man stalking a woman who lives on Lind Road.

TUESDAY

6:49 a.m. - A man called the Irrigon Justice Center, Irrigon, and asked to speak to someone after learning his dog "attacked someone and was put down while he was in jail." A Morrow County sheriff's deputy tried to call the man, but was not able to contact him.

7:45 a.m. - A Hermiston man on Northeast Seventh Street told police it looks like someone took a baseball bat to his mailbox.

8:16 a.m. - IRS phone scammers targeted a Hermiston woman, who asked to speak to an officer about the ongoing calls.

9:26 a.m. - Morrow County sheriff's deputies responded to Green Acres Park, 80542 Paterson Ferry Road, Irrigon, and separated two men for fighting and told them to stay away from one another.

12:50 p.m. - Two Hispanic males ran from a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy at a "grow" site at Kosmos and North Loop roads, Stanfield.

3:49 p.m. - A man loitering at Cottage Flowers, 1725 N. First St., Hermiston, used an outlet behind the business to charge his cellphone. An employee of the business asked police to have the man move along.

5:05 p.m. - Someone broke into a vehicle at Tri-Harbor Landing Apartments, 210 Klickitat St., Umatilla. The vehicle's owner told police her husband noticed in the morning the glove box and the hood were open and someone may have tried to remove the stereo.

6:26 p.m. - A resident at the apartments at 230 E. Dogwood Ave., Hermiston, told police a woman from the apartment below hers pounded on the door and claimed the caller was in her parking space. However, the caller told police, there is no assigned parking at the complex. She also reported someone parked a red vehicle directly behind her white Chevrolet Traverse to block her in.

7:09 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report of a woman who asked for help while pushing a car on Southeast 10th and East Main streets and claimed her boyfriend assaulted her and took her wallet and phone.

10:49 p.m. - Two people prowled through yards in the neighborhood near the assisted-living facility Columbia Care Cottage-Ozmac, 325 Leaf Lane, Hermiston.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THESE TWO HOMES?

HINT: IT HAS TO DO WITH SAVING ENERGY AND MONEY.

Though two homes may look alike, energy-efficiency upgrades can make a big difference in terms of maximizing comfort and reducing energy use and cost.

Energy Trust of Oregon can help you find a trade ally contractor and provide cash incentives that help offset the cost of qualifying energy improvements. With upgrades to your water heater, appliances and lighting, you could save up to 20 percent on your home energy costs while not having to scale back on comfort.

Start getting more from your energy today. Visit www.energytrust.org/homes or call us at 1.866.368.7878.

Serving customers of Portland General Electric, Pacific Power, NW Natural and Cascade Natural Gas.
