PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

SUNDAY

12:45 p.m. - A woman told Hermiston police someone stole her 2001 white Suzuki car from the Economy Inn, 835 N. First St., Hermiston.

2:52 p.m. - A caller reported an assault on Southeast Sixth Street, Hermiston, with "blood everywhere," then disconnected.

6:10 p.m. - A male told Hermiston police another male punched him in the face and head-butted him.

7:35 p.m. - A Hermiston caller reported the theft of a maroon Honda Civic from Northwest 12th Street.

SATURDAY

6:06 p.m. - A caller reported two or three explosions occurred to the west of Oxbow Lane and Highway 730, Umatilla.

FRIDAY

8:01 a.m. - A woman reported a burglary at her home on Carolina Road, Umatilla, after her husband had left.

THURSDAY

1:12 a.m. - A 43-year-old man from Twin Falls, Idaho, escaped unharmed when the vehicle he was driving caught fire a few miles east of Pendleton on the westbound lanes of Interstate 84. Oregon State Police reported the fire destroyed the vehicle and investigators do not know the cause.

11:06 a.m. - A caller told Umatilla police she had an altercation with another dog owner when she was walking her dog at Powerline Road and Martin Drive, Umatilla. Police began an investigation.

11:18 a.m. - Emergency services received a call-out to respond to Two Rivers Correctional Institution, Umatilla, for an inmate who injured himself in the groin area and was bleeding.

7:48 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of someone dumping a large amount of trash on the 78100 block of Westland Road, Hermiston. Deputies did not find the waste pile.

WEDNESDAY

5:11 a.m. - A Umatilla woman said a company scammed her with "pick up" fees for a modem and router and did not give her a receipt.

7:17 a.m. - School buses speeding on Cottonwood Bend Road, Hermiston, prompted a man to complain to police. The caller said he filed driving complaints with the bus company, which has done nothing.

8:12 a.m. - A man reported the theft of $10,000 of equipment from his work trailer outside Hermiston.

9:22 a.m. - Hermiston police received a call to make sleeping transients leave from the back of the building at The Arc of Umatilla County, 215 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston.

9:33 a.m. - Friendly pit bull dogs keep entering a property on Quiggle Lane, Hermiston, to play with Great Danes there, and the owner of the Danes said he talked with the other dog owners about this but they only tie up their dogs occasionally. Now he said he wants a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to tell them to get rid of the pit bulls.

9:59 a.m. - Hermiston police received a tip about possible sex crimes.

2:25 p.m. - Staff at Umpqua Bank, 450 N. First St., Hermiston, asked for police to haul off a shopping cart full of garbage and other items by their waste container.

3:21 p.m. - A woman reported suspicious activity at a home on East Punkin Center Road, Hermiston. She went there to pick up a dog from someone she knows, and when she arrived a black pickup truck and a trailer were at the house, and the pickup driver, a Caucasian man in his 20s with dark brown hair, had uncovered a car in the garage and was loading items into the pickup. The woman said no one was supposed to be there, however.

TUESDAY

11:01 a.m. - A Hermiston man reported more than $1,100 in fraudulent activity on his bank account.

2:04 p.m. - A woman told Hermiston police her son's neighbors on West Ridgeway Avenue harass her when she goes to his residence and also threaten her and her son.

2:45 p.m. - A Hermiston-area woman reported two other females came to her apartment and pushed her out, pulled her hair and hit her in the face. She said she would wait for law enforcement in the parking lot.

3:21 p.m. - A man told Hermiston police that around 8 a.m. on Northwest Spruce Street, Hermiston, his vehicle kicked up some dirt, and a resident threw a chair at the vehicle causing damage.

5:42 p.m. - Someone broke into a Hermiston woman's home on Southeast Ninth Street, ransacked her dressers and stole jewelry.

MONDAY

1:44 p.m. - A man at West Orchard Avenue and Southwest Third Street, Hermiston, told police the person who robbed him previously is at the bus stop.

1:54 p.m. - Hermiston police received a call from an emergency department nurse at Good Shepherd Medical Center, 610 N.W. 11th St., to check on a 1-year-old girl who could be suffering from neglect. The mother stormed out of the hospital when she could not smoke inside, and the child had an injury to a toe that needed medical attention. The mother, though, took the child and they left on a bicycle.

2:22 p.m. - A woman on Agnew Road, Hermiston, reported the neighbor's dogs were out again, and in the past the dogs killed her chickens and attacked her and her family.

3:25 p.m. - The "one that rides the bike with bottles and cans" in Hermiston was at West Hermiston Avenue and Southwest Fourth Street throwing bottles and cans at passing vehicles. The caller also reported the man urinated in the bushes on Fourth Street.

4:04 p.m. - Hermiston police received a second-hand report that a man assaulted his girlfriend last week while she held a child and the boyfriend's mother would not let the woman leave. Then, the caller said, the man beat her the other night and choked her, and the family is keeping her at their home against her will.

5:33 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of horse abuse and neglect on Northeast
