Hermiston police arrest man for crashing into bicyclist

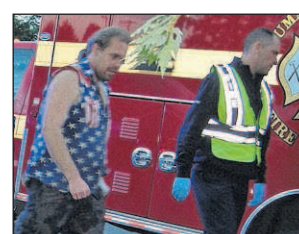

HERMISTON — A Hermiston driver faces a felony after police claimed he crashed into a bicyclist and left the injured rider at the scene.

Hermiston Police Capt. Travis Eynon in a written statement reported officers at about 5:58 p.m. responded to Northeast Fourth Street and East Gladys Avenue for a vehicle versus bicycle collision.

The bicyclist, Jason M. Simpkins, 29, of 638 N.E. Dakota Court, Hermiston, was riding southbound on Northeast Fourth when a north-going Chevrolet Impala turned left onto East Gladys Avenue, according to Eynon, and into Simpkins' path. Simpkins and his bicycle hit the right rear quarter panel of the Impala, which did not stop.

Eynon stated a witness to the crash followed the Impala a short distance and provided officers with a license plate and a description of the driver.

injuries and received medical treatment at the scene.

Officer's went to 915 N.W. Stockton St., Hermiston, where they found the Impala, which had extensive damage to the right rear quarter panel. They also found Federico Ricardo DeJesus, 44, who lives at the address, and arrested him on the felony of failure to perform the duties of a driver to injured persons. Police also arrested DeJesus for driving while suspended/revoked, a misdemeanor. Officers processed DeJesus at the police department, then booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

SAFETY:

broken into, the safe was open and all the money was missing.

6:50 a.m. - A fisherman at the mouth of the Umatilla River complained to Umatilla police that someone was shooting at ducks over the heads of fishermen in boats in the area, and BBs were raining down on people's heads.

5:24 p.m. - Umatilla police received a report of shots fired from a rifle in the vicinity of Jane Avenue and Sixth Street.

7:19 p.m. - Trucks in a farmer's field next to the Eastern Oregon Trade & Event Center, 1705 E. Airport Road, Hermiston, were "spinning out" and "doing cookies," and a caller was concerned the activity may cause trouble with the event being held at the center. The man called again at 7:56 p.m. to report two of the trucks were still driving recklessly, and requested contact from a Hermiston police officer. Another caller at 10:07 p.m. called Hermiston police to complain about noise from the event at the center.

8:20 p.m. - A resident of Country Club Manor Apartments, 605 Umatilla Ave., Umatilla, reported the theft of a bottle of anxiety medication sometime within the past four days.

10:07 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report from a caller at the 11th Street Market, 425 N.W. 11th St., that an 11-year-old boy was driving a car for his intoxicated father.

11:49 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report of a gunshot in the vicinity of Victory Square, Southwest 10th Street and West Hermiston Avenue.

FRIDAY, OCT. 14

5:34 a.m. - A pump, motor, hoses and several fittings designed for chemicals, along with 200 gallons of diesel fuel, were reported stolen from a tractor in the vicinity of South Edwards and Feedville roads, Stanfield.

1:47 p.m. - A woman witnessed the theft of her husband's three-door hand-held tool box from the back of his pickup on West Nelson Lane, Hermiston. The caller said she yelled at the suspects and they left in a light blue 1993 Toyota Tercel two-door. A Umatilla County sheriff's deputy took a report.

1:54 p.m. - A Hermiston woman reported her name was used to rent an apartment in Arizona, and a collections agency is trying to collect

$2,000 from her. She stated she has been a Hermiston resident for 10 years and has never rented an apartment in Arizona. She requested officer contact.

3:05 p.m. - An Irrigon man reported theft problems and named a possible suspect.

3:57 p.m. - A man called Hermiston police to report two men in an SUV parked at Butte Park were doing meth and one of them had a revolver.

THURSDAY, OCT. 13

12:10 p.m. - A mother reported her daughter assaulted her and left in a blue car from Hat Rock Campground, 82280 Hat Rock Road, Hermiston. She said her daughter was high on methamphetamine.

12:39 p.m. - Hermiston police received a report of an elderly woman wearing only a t-shirt and crying while on an electric scooter at West Highland Avenue and Southwest Seventh Street.

2:24 p.m. - A caller told Umatilla police people are piling bicycles without tires on a fire hydrant on B Street and throwing garbage out the windows, which is making a mess.

2:27 p.m. - A woman on Cherry Street, Umatilla, told police she and her husband argued and he punched the front room window and cut his hand.

3:46 p.m. - Hermiston police received a call to send an officer to the emergency department of Good Shepherd Health Care System, 610 N.W. 11th St., for a possible victim of elder abuse.

5:20 p.m. - Someone stole $1,800 in change from the master restroom at Highland Park on Northeast Madrona Drive, Hermiston.

10:22 p.m. - People yelled and screamed at a duplex on Northeast Eighth Street, Hermiston.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 12

3:24 a.m. - A commercial bus driver at Love's Travel Stop & Country Store, 78665, Tower Road, Boardman, reported a passenger was being irrational and posing a threat to other passengers. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and found the 50-year-old man was complaining of gallbladder problems.

8:13 a.m. - Hermiston police received a 9-1-1 call for an officer to help a 9-month-old baby locked inside a white Plymouth PT Cruiser in front of the U.S. Post Office, 375 W. Orchard Ave.

9:33 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office receive a report of five or six neglected horses at the corner of Banks Lane and East Punkin Center Road, Hermiston.

12:19 p.m. - A mother told Hermiston police she took a $200 coat to Neli's Alterations, 130 E. Main St.,

Hermiston, which went out of business and has not returned the coat.

1:15 p.m. - A person asked to speak to a Boardman police officer about harassment, which began an investigation.

3:45 p.m. - Stanfield police took a report of criminal mischief at Stanfield Secondary School, 1120 N. Main St., Stanfield.

3:56 p.m. - A caller reported she was driving by Hermiston High School, 600 S. First St., and someone in a white car threw an apple at her window. The Oregon license plate on the suspect's vehicle was UDC 316, the caller reported.

7:16 p.m. - Hermiston police received a request to trespass several transients from the Wal-Mart Supercenter, 1350 N. First St.

9:38 p.m. - A man on West Laird Avenue, Hermiston, called 9-1-1 to report he was in a domestic violence situation with his wife. Though it was not physical, he was drinking and children were in the home.

11:44 p.m. - Umatilla police responded to a 9-1-1 call on Pomono Drive for a man hitting a woman several times in the side of the face and neck.

TUESDAY, OCT. 11

1:44 a.m. - A 9-1-1 caller in Umatilla reported a "higher power" told her someone was outside her home and she may have heard noise in the backyard but that could be her dog. Still, she said, she would like an officer to contact her.

8:39 a.m. - A man asked to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy after a near crash. He reported he was northbound on Highway 395 near Punkin Center Road, Hermiston, when a driver with California plates changed lanes and did not signal, nearly clipping his vehicle. They pulled into the parking lot at Oxarc Inc., 80492 Highway 395 N., Hermiston, where the caller said the other driver made threats. The caller said he was going to tell police, and the other driver stated he was the police.

11:24 a.m. - A caller from Stahl Farms on Despain Gulch Road, Stanfield, reported a bulk tank of pesticide leaked during the weekend, possibly due to vandalism. The man also said he contacted emergency and environmental agencies.

1:13 p.m. - Hale's Restaurant, 174 E. Main St., Hermiston, was the victim of theft. Someone stole two checks from the business, according to the report to Hermiston police, and cashed them in Walla Walla.

1:55 p.m. - A woman went to a home on North Prescott Street, Echo, and grabbed the occupant there by the neck. That person then bit the attacker. The call information indicated the two know each other.

8:43 p.m. - The Umatilla County 9-1-1 center received a call from a man who stated, "I need to talk to Bill Golder," a Hermiston police officer. The dispatcher asked the caller questions, but he only said he wanted to talk to Golder. A woman then got on the phone, said there was no emergency and her boyfriend was highly intoxicated and tried to explain to him not to call 9-1-1.
