Maxine C. Meyers

Spokane
November 23, 1923-November 8, 2016

Meyers

Our beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother passed away peacefully Tuesday, November 8th, 2016, in Spokane, Washington, at the age of 92 years.

Maxine was born November 23, 1923, to John and Ruby Blick in Ferndale, Wash. She graduated from Custer High School May 1942. Maxine went to work in the shipyards at Everett, Washington, as a welder. She then joined the U.S. Navy, first assigned to the Bronx, N.Y., then transferring to Memphis, Tennessee. Maxine was honorably discharged April 1949.

After the Navy, Maxine traveled by train to begin college at Washington State University. Maxine met and married Marshall Meyers while in college there. Marshall and Maxine settled in Echo, Oregon, where they raised their family.

Maxine was a great cook and baker. The cookie jar was never empty. She loved to garden and her yard was always filled with beautiful flowers.

Maxine was active in Eastern Star, Garden Club and the Methodist Church. Maxine loved to play every card game you can imagine with her family and friends.

Maxine is predeceased by her husband Marsh and granddaughter Ashleigh.

She is survived by her four children: Lynn, Ron (Johanna), Gary, and Karen (Robert) Holman; grandchildren Shane (Melanie) Roberts, Casey (Lacey) Holman, Cameron Meyers, Alexander Meyers, Ruby Meyers and Joseph Meyers; and great-grandchildren Danica Jo Holman, Eli Holman and Rhea Jean Holman.

A graveside service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 13, 2016, at the Echo Cemetery, Echo, Oregon.

Drunk drivers abound during weekend

Local law enforcement made multiple arrests for drunken driving this past weekend.

Umatilla County Sheriff's deputy Nathan Rankin at about 2:20 a.m. Saturday nabbed Isidro Calderon Alfonso Santana, 21, of Hermiston, for driving under the influence of intoxicant. Then at about 11:30 p.m. the deputy arrested Trevor D. Revoir, 31, of Stanfield, for DUII.

Hermiston police on Saturday arrested Richard Eugene Orville Wiggins, 39, of 505 W. Hartley Ave., Hermiston, for DUII. He also had a Marion County warrant for not complying with circuit court orders from 2013 to pay fees and complete a drunk driving diversion program.

Oregon State Police reported a trooper caught a drunk driver after a crash Saturday night.

Sara Anna Murphy, 26, no address provided, was driving a Chevrolet S10 pickup and tried to pass a semitrailer on Interstate 84 near the connection to Yoakum Road east of Echo, state police reported, when she struck the right rear side of the trailer. The pickup entered the median and rolled. The trooper cited Murphy for DUII and reckless driving.
