

Boardman chamber recognizes citizens at awards banquet

Hermiston Herald

The Boardman Chamber of Commerce recently celebrated residents that help in making the town a vibrant community.

In its 27th year, the annual awards banquet was held Feb. 10 at the Port of Morrow. Those recognized include:

Sam Toms, Citizen of the Year. Known as "Stan the Man," Toms is said to be the go-to person when senior citizens are in need, especially in regards to transportation. Regardless of where they need to go, Boardman's senior citizens can always count on Toms to get them there, said a press release from chamber executive Julie Gisi.

Karen Purcell, Business Person of the Year. Owner of The Sunrise at Boardman Café, Purcell was recognized for her commitment to the community through her generosity and continuous involvement.

Adam Cole, Fire & Safety Award. A firefighter with the Boardman Rural Fire Protection District, Cole is dedicated to the community providing fire safety education, involvement with community events and youth sports.

Collin Dunlap, Educator of the Year. The Riverside Jr/Sr High School

music teacher, Dunlap was nominated by co-workers and students for his enthusiasm regarding performing arts.

Selene Andrade, Youth of the Year. A senior at Riverside Jr/Sr High School, Andrade was recognized for her enthusiasm, attitude, dedication and for being a role model for others.

In addition to the regular awards, several others were honored with special recognition.

"These special awards are just an extra boost of how great our community is," Gisi said.

Linda Toms, Special Award. After 30 years of business, she recently closed the doors to The Mouse Factory. The success of Toms' business, Gisi said, was due to good business sense, her commitment and involvement with others.

Nicholas Richardson and Adolfo Martinez, Life Saving Awards. The men alerted two families about a fire in their duplex. Due to their quick action, both families, which included infants, escaped safely without injury.

Gisi said people can submit nominations throughout the year.

TO THE People of Wallow County, Through this letter I would like to offer my sincerest apology on behalf of myself as well as my car club. In early August 2016, I was driving too fast through your county and did not follow all the laws of the road. Driving at an excessive speed of over 130 mph is unsafe and I will not drive that fast on a public road again. There are many non-public places to enjoy high speeds responsibly and I will follow the rules and will only attend these events in the future. I hope that through this letter we can begin to make up for my wrong doing. Thank you in advance as we all really enjoyed your lovely community. BR,
Jacob Goss
