

OBITUARIES

Mark Rouska

Gresham
September 19, 1964-March 17, 2017

Mark Rouska, 52, passed away after a long battle with kidney cancer. He was born in Aberdeen, Washington, to James and Maxine Rouska on Sept. 19, 1964.

Mark enjoyed life surrounded by his siblings Celeste Johnson-Maret, Les Rouska, Ted Rouska, Lonnie Rouska, Nicole Wyscaver, and their spouses. Mark enjoyed fishing, sports and spending time with family.

Mark graduated from Condon High School and then continued his education. Through years of study he earned a master's degree in education and a master's degree in business administration. Mark found his calling working with youth at the Boys and Girls Club of Salem. Later he entered the field of education, teaching social sciences and special education in Morrow County School District. Mark felt that all of his students deserved his time and respect. He was a compassionate educator who was well known for his sense of humor inside and outside of the classroom.

Mark is survived by his wife of 31 years, Patrice, and his children Aaron and Kristine and her husband Adrian, along with his surrogate children Richard Hernandez, Leo Reinelt, Ivo Steinbrecher, and Golf. He was an honorable man, well loved by family and friends.

A Celebration of Life and potluck lunch is open to the public on Saturday, April 8, at 1 p.m. at A.C. Houghton Elementary in Irrigon, Oregon. Per Mark's wishes, we encourage you to wear your favorite sports team apparel or Hawaiian shirts for a family-friendly softball game following the reception. We hope you will participate or stay to cheer on family and friends.

In lieu of flowers or gifts please donate to your local school district or the American Cancer Society.

Dale Lance 'Humpty' McCoy

Wellington, Ariz.

March 9, 1946-March 13, 2017

Dale Lance "Humpty" McCoy died March 13, 2017, in Wellington, Arizona. He was born March 9, 1946, to Carroll W. and Rena Zylstra McCoy in Yakima, Washington.

He graduated from Umatilla High School in 1964, and joined the United States Air Force, serving from October 1964 to July 1969.

He worked on the Ramos Ranch in Echo for many years before and after the military. He worked on the toll bridge after his time in the service, and worked for the city of Umatilla for six years. He retired from the Umatilla County Road Department in 2003. He was also with the Umatilla Fire Department for about 30 years.

He is survived by his wife, Melody A. McCoy; his daughters Lisa Mc-

McCoy

Coy and Teresa Jensen (Aaron) both of Hermiston; stepchildren Maurine Cline of Hermiston, Sherri Olofson (Trent) of Sandpoint, Idaho, Earl Snyder of Seattle, and Darrell Snyder of Safford, Arizona; sister Lynn Uitto (Irv) of Umatilla; and brother Dennis McCoy (Margie) of Hermiston. He had 15 grandchildren and one great-grandson, and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Carroll and Rena McCoy, and brother, Gordon McCoy.

Dale was loved by so many friends and family. He loved to hunt, fish and go camping, being "Uncle Dumpy," and traveling with his wife.

Memorial services will be held June 17, 2017, at 10:30 a.m. at Umatilla High School gymnasium.

Robert Roland Broun

Novato, Calif.
May 29, 1959-February 27, 2017

Robert Roland Broun was born to James Broun and Joyce Eldridge in Bremerton, Washington. He is survived by his husband, Daryl Tran; mother, Joyce Broun of Pendleton; nephew, Jimmy Broun; and cousins Jim and Phil Hummell.

After college, he moved to Fajardo, Puerto Rico, to live with his dad for five years and worked on drones. Then he was hired by Aramco and worked as a technician for several years. Robert got to travel to Saudi Arabia and Kuwait. Finally, he landed a job with GTE as a project manager. Robert and his team of engineers were in charge of setting up communication satellites in other countries. This job provided Robert the opportunity to work and live in Burkino Faso, West Africa, and Egypt.

Robert retired from GTE and moved to the Bay Area. He lived in San Francisco, Berkeley and Tiburon. In 2006 Robert met Daryl and they have been inseparable ever since. They moved to Novato in 2009. On July 13, 2013, Robert married the love of his life, Daryl. They were fortunate to have traveled to Italy, China, Puerto Vallarta, and Spain. Robert and Daryl celebrated their 10-year anniversary in Spain. They had the time of their lives.

Robert was a social and friendly person who was loved by all those whom he came in contact with. He will be missed dearly by his family and friends. Robert's spirit will live in all of us.

Frank N. Brown

Hermiston
December 30, 1927-March 17, 2017

Frank N. Brown of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on Dec. 30, 1927, in Maryland to parents Dilver and Stella Payne Brown. He died on March 17, 2017, in Richland, Washington, at the age of 89 years.

He served in the United States Army Air Corps as a fireman in the Philippines during World War II until his honorable discharge. Frank was united in marriage to Betty R. Hodge on June 1, 1947. They moved their family from Virginia to Hermiston, Oregon, in August of 1961, where he has lived since.

Frank worked for Stewart's Market for many years working as a cashier, stocking the shelves, in maintenance or anywhere he was needed. He later worked for IGA for several years.

Frank enjoyed woodworking, hunting, fishing, cutting firewood, mounting antlers for friends and family, and going for drives in the mountains. He cherished the time he was able to spend with his family, passing the love of the outdoors onto them. Frank was always there to help his children and lend a hand to help anyone wherever he could. He was recognized earlier this year in an East Oregonian article, "who at the age of 89 was out with his tractor clearing everyone's driveways."

Frank made many friends over the years with many of the farmers and ranchers on Big and Little Buttercreek.

He would often stop by and share stories and a Mtn. Dew with them. Frank was very thankful and considered himself very rich that the Lord blessed him with such a wonderful family.

He is survived by his children: Tom and wife Kristy, Larry and wife Sharon, Danny and wife Cathy, Darlene and husband Matt, Susan and husband Jim, and Carolyn; sister Marylou Davis; brothers Maynard, Dale and Duane Brown; grandchildren Darcy, Jeromie, Dwayne, Jessica, Maranda, Katie, Nikkie and Justin; numerous great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Frank was preceded in death by his wife, his parents, grandchildren Kerra, Rebecca and Rob; a great-granddaughter, Kara; a sister, Edith Blankenship; and brothers Merle Brown and Lavone Brown.

A memorial service with military honors will be held on Thursday, March 23, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the Hermiston First Christian Church, Hermiston, Oregon.

Jolene S. Gibson

Boardman
May 6, 1961-March 13, 2017

Jolene S. Gibson of Boardman, Oregon, was born on May 6, 1961, in Weaverville, California. She died on March 13, 2017, in Richland, Washington, at the age of 55 years.

She had graduated from Lebanon High School in the class of 1979. Jolene had worked for Lamb Weston 35 years where she was a lab technician. Jolene enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, family and friends, and at the Oregon Coast.

She is survived by her mother Anita Tittman of Irrigon; daughters Jennifer

Gibson

Arms and Kimberly Berg, both of Boardman.; brother David Reed, Lebanon, Oregon; sisters Jadene Dickerson of Umatilla, Lisa Miller of Albany, and Terri Carter of Umatilla; grandchildren: Nykolai Berg and Mykaela Berg, both of Boardman.; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A celebration of life service was held on Saturday, March 18, 2017, at Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston.

Dolores Jean (Brown) Pinney

Hermiston
June 5, 1926-February 15, 2017

Dolores Jean (Brown) Pinney of Hermiston, Oregon, was born June 5, 1926, in Weed, California, to parents Raymond and Goldie (Sparks) Brown. She died Wednesday, Feb. 15, 2017, in Hermiston at the age of 90.

Jean graduated as valedictorian in 1944 from Irrigon High School. After one year at Eastern Oregon College in La Grande, Oregon, she moved to Los Angeles where her great-aunt Elva operated a beauty shop. Jean became a fashion model and was selected Miss Hollywood at age 21, receiving a month's vacation in Hawaii.

After moving to New York City where her father's sister Blanche (stage name: Ruth Chandler) performed in stage plays, Jean became a Powers Model and had photos placed in many magazines. She became a cover girl on several magazines, including Minicum Photography, Pageant and Redbook.

Jean moved back to Los Angeles where she met her husband, Robert Pinney, whom she married in 1951. After moving to San Francisco, they became architectural contractors in that area. Among many other accomplishments, Jean was an expert seamstress.

After her husband's death in 1996, Jean moved to Hermiston to be closer to her brother Bob and his family.

Preceding Jean in death were her parents, stepfather, several step-sisters, husband, nephew Gary Brown, and her brother Robert "Bob" Brown.

Jean is survived by her niece Vickie, nephew Daryl, step-sister Patty, sister-in-law Ellen, numerous great-nephews, a great niece and several cousins.

The family thanks the Good Shepherd staff, Guardian Angel caregivers, and Vange John Hospice for their care. Special thanks are also extended to Jean's helpful neighbors and Burns Mortuary staff.

Family and friends will remember Jean's many talents and accomplishments during her long life. More Alzheimer's research does need to be continued for the benefit of many.

A graveside Celebration of Life service for family and friends will be conducted on Saturday, March 25, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery where she will be interred by her beloved husband.
