Hermiston girls golf wins team title at Hood River tourney

The Hermiston girls golf team won the team title with 429 score at Monday's tournament at Indian Creek Golf Course in Hood River, and Hood River was second with 466.

The Dalles won the boys' team title with 325, Pendleton was second with 345 and Goldendale was third with 390.

BEND INVITATIONAL—Hermiston's top four all shot below 90 and the Bulldogs took third as a team on Monday at Bend Country Club.

Summit won the title with a score of 318, Bend was second with 327 and Hermiston shot 341.

Jared Thacker's 84 over 18 holes was good enough for 10th, and Anders Lind and Tyler Cameron each shot 85. Kayden Meacham had 87 and fifth golfer Blue Blackhurst had a 99.

Bend's Rhett Pederson took the individual title with a 72.

Hermiston will be at the Pendleton Invitational on Thursday.

zones like today and shows you he's figuring it out."

Behind Gritz, Wyatt Noland also tallied four hits with a triple, two RBI and three runs scored, while Kaden Caldwell had three hits and an RBI and Tolan had two hits and three runs. After scoring just three runs with 12 hits in a doubleheader sweep to La Grande on Monday, Hawkins said the focus at practice was squaring up pitches, and the results were noticeable.

"We worked really hard in practice with that because we had too many easy fly balls, rolling over on pitches," he said. "I don't think we've had over 10 hits in a game before and that was good to see. Now it looks like we have to focus on some defensive stuff and pitching."

Hermiston's defense and pitching was mostly a big blemish all day, especially in Game 2 where Hermiston took a 12-2 loss to Heritage to finish with a split. The deflating moment came in the second inning with Heritage holding a 2-1 lead, where Hermiston pitcher Andrew James appeared to have a quick 1-2-3 inning with two strikeouts and a routine infield ground ball.

Hermiston coach Lance Hawkins huddles with the team on the mound during the first game of a baseball doubleheader against Heritage on Friday in Hermiston.

However, a fielding error on the play allowed the batter to reach base, extending the inning. Heritage jumped at the second chance, ripping two singles, one walk and a two-RBI double to put up four runs in the inning and take a 6-1 lead. From there on out, the body language of the Hermiston defense looked defeated as they finished the game with four errors total.

"We have to learn how to play defense a little bit better behind our pitchers," Gritz said. "We don't have pitchers that are going to strike everyone out, we have ground ball pitchers and we need to capitalize on more outs on the infield, the outfield, even me and help the pitchers out." The inning chased James after three innings and 65 pitches, though it was probably Hermiston's best outing on the mound on a day where Bulldog pitchers struggled with command. Overall, Hermiston pitchers issued 19 free passes with walks or hit-by-pitch to go with 12 strikeouts and threw just 49 percent strikes on the day.

And the booming Bulldog offense from earlier in the afternoon was kept under control by Heritage pitcher Allen Breckenheimer, who threw a seven-inning complete game, allowing just two runs and eight hits with five strikeouts and two walks.

WIND, WIND GO AWAY

Athletic events all over the region were affected by constant high winds and gusts that sat in the 20-30 mile-per-hour range all afternoon, and these games were no different. The wind was blowing straight out to right-center field at Armand Larive ball park on Friday, making fly balls extra tricky for both defenses.

Though, Hawkins said that playing in extreme elements whether it's wind, rain or temperature is nothing his players were not used to.

"It is what it is being in Eastern Oregon," Hawkins said. "Some of those gusts were pretty impressive, but if you're not ready to play in the wind, oh well ... plus in a few weeks we'll be saying 'Oh dang it's really hot' so we'll deal with it."
