

OBITUARIES

Dennis Michael Simmons
Cody, Wyoming
Feb. 25, 1952 — June 11, 2017

Dennis Michael Simmons was born on Feb. 25, 1952 in North Carolina to Ed and Dorothy Simmons.

Dennis and his family moved to Oregon when he was 3 years old, living first in Heppner for a short time and then settling in Stanfield.

Dennis excelled in sports and academics at Stanfield High School. Shortly after graduating in 1970 he enlisted in the Navy where he spent six years primarily on Naval carriers.

Dennis settled back in Stanfield after his service ended. He married Kim Simmons and they raised three children together in a home on Loop Road. Dennis built and operated a successful controls engineering business from 1995 to 2013. Dennis had recently retired and move to Cody, Wyoming, the place he had always wanted to be. He lovingly referred to his home there as "The Promised Land."

Dennis was well known for his dedication to his family, his ability to build or fix anything, his incredible humor and his love of hunting, fishing, and being in the mountains.

Dennis passed away on June 11, 2017. He leaves behind many who love him dearly. His memorial service will be held on Sunday June 18, at 4 p.m. at Bennett Botanical Gardens, 32632 E. Punkin Center Road, Hermiston, Oregon. All are welcome.

Two men injured in Saturday crash

Two Boardman men were injured in a crash on Interstate 82 Saturday afternoon.

Israel A. Martinez, 21, and Adrian Virelas Hernandez, 23, were taken to Good Shepherd Medical Center in Hermiston and Martinez was later transferred by air ambulance to Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane.

According to the Oregon State Police log entry Martinez was driving a white Mazda with Virelas Hernandez as a passenger when he fell asleep at the wheel at approximately milepost 10 and drove off the roadway shortly before 3:30 p.m.

Umatilla Police arrest brothers for assault

Hermiston Herald

Umatilla police arrested Jesus Carrillo Jr., 31, along with his brother, Rodolfo Abel Carrillo, 27, early Sunday for third-degree assault and second-degree disorderly conduct. Police also arrested Jesus Carrillo for resisting arrest.

Disorderly conduct and resisting arrest are misdemeanors, while the assault charge is a felony.

The brothers are in the Umatilla County Jail in Pendleton.

A 9-1-1 caller at 3:49 a.m. reported two males jumped another male on Eighth Street in Umatilla, according to the Umatilla police bulletin. Jail records show the arrests occurred at a home at 701 Eighth St., Umatilla.

Jesus Carrillo has a criminal history that includes convictions for manufacturing marijuana within 1,000 feet of a school and assault, according to Umatilla County Circuit Court records. He also shot and killed Heriberto Aparicio Garcia in late 2011 when the two fought at a party in Hermiston.

Carrillo took a deal in 2012 and pleaded guilty to felon in possession of a firearm and criminally negligent homicide for the killing and received four-and-half years in prison, along with credit for the time he was in jail.

District Attorney Dan Primus at the time said the punishment was fitting because witnesses said Garcia used a knife in the fight, and forensic scientists found Carrillo's DNA on a bloody knife at the crime scene.

Carrillo served his time at Snake River Correctional Institution in Ontario. Snake River's spokesperson, Cathleen Shroyer, said the Oregon Department of Corrections released Carrillo Dec. 29, 2015.

Court records show Jesus Carrillo received a citation in June 2016 for driving without a license and owes $512 for that, and he has a case pending for driving while suspended and careless driving on May 6.

Rodolfo Carrillo owes $325 on a Feb. 23 ticket for driving while suspended or revoked and driving uninsured.
