OBITUARIES

Vernon Arlo Henderson

Irrigon
November 24, 1931 - August 1, 2017

Vernon Arlo Henderson, age 85, surrounded by his wife and children, died on August 1, 2017, at the Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston, Oregon. He resided in Irrigon, Oregon, for the past 25 years.

He was born Nov. 24, 1931, in Promise, Oregon, to Vesper Ray and Maude (Taylor) Henderson. He was the youngest of 12 children. Arlo married Glenna Skelton on May 28, 1956, in Lewiston, Nez Perce, Idaho. After graduating from Wallowa High School he said "he bummed around working a little here and there ... before he joined the Air Force." He made a career of it but after climbing as high in rank as he could, he took his discharge from the Air Force but later joined the Army seeking that higher rank. He had many adventures in the military connected to his overseas deployments.

After retiring from the military he worked as a millwright, packaging engineer and truck driver while living in Wallowa, Hermiston, and Milton-Freewater.

Arlo had old-fashioned values — the handshake was your word. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He loved flying, riding his horse, and gardening.

Arlo was preceded in death by his parents and siblings.

He is survived by his wife of 61 years, Glenna; children Sandra (Mark) Pilling, Greg Henderson and Cynthia (Marco Sr.) Mendoza; nine grandchildren: Heather (Ryan), Melissa (Michael) Dozark, Everett (Jennifer) Pilling, Jacob Pilling, Jessica (Gary) Loayza, Forrest Mendoza, Marco (Zdenka) Mendoza Jr., Monique (Tyler) Raab and Dumenico (Mariaclaudia) Mendoza; 19 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces, and nephews.

A graveside service was held at the Wallowa Cemetery, Wallowa, Oregon, at 1 p.m. Saturday, August 5, 2017, with a potluck dinner following at Lion's Park in Wallowa.

Charles R. 'Chuck' Bechler

Walla Walla
November 16, 1939 - August 5, 2017

Charles R. "Chuck" Bechler of Walla Walla, Washington, former longtime Umatilla, Oregon, resident, was born on November 16, 1939, in Sac County, Iowa, the youngest of four children, to parents George and Margaret Smith Bechler. He died on August 5, 2017, at his home in Walla Walla, Washington, at the age of 77 years.

Chuck graduated from high school and received a teaching scholarship to go to college because his mother was a teacher. After two years of college he decided that teaching was not for him. His cousin got him a job with the Corps of Engineers in December 1959 where he worked in construction and surveying for the first 15 years of his career. Chuck married Nancy Warner and they had four children, Lauri, J.Deane, Amy and David, before later divorcing.

In 1972 he became a powerhouse operator in Umatilla, Oregon. Chuck married Hattie Crewdson in 1976, adding Tom, Trina and Richard (who passed away in 1996) to this blended family. He retired from the Corps of Engineers in 1994 after working throughout the Northwest as well as Wyoming, Arkansas, North Dakota and Alaska.

Chuck and Hattie then started a new adventure RVing on November 26, 1994, heading to Arizona. They took a break from RVing in 1999 to move to Mattawa, Washington, to raise their grandson Mat Waddell for three years before he joined the United States Navy. They resumed RVing in 2001 and continued until 2012 when they settled in Walla Walla, Washington, to be near family. During their 20 years of travels they experienced many adventures and visited many places including castles in Germany and the caves in Virginia.

They saw a lot of the country and enjoyed many concerts and spent every winter going south with their dog, Boo Boo.

Chuck enjoyed biking, traveling, walking, fishing, hiking, and especially playing pool with the "Boys" at the senior center. Chuck had a lifetime full of memories filled with love, loss and family.

He is survived by his wife, Hattie Bechler, Walla Walla; children Lauri Bechler and J.Deane Coombs, Umatilla, Amy Omstead, Scappoose, Oregon, David Bechler, Bothell, Washington, Tom Waddell and Trina Parrish, both of Walla Walla; 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Chuck was preceded in death by his parents, three siblings, a stepson and a grandson.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, August 12, 2017, at 11 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at Sunset Hills Cemetery, Umatilla, Oregon.

Irma Pauline Nevil

Hermiston
March 24, 1936 - August 4, 2017

Irma Pauline Nevil, 81, of Hermiston passed away on Friday, August 4, 2017.

Irma was born March 24, 1936, in Eston, Saskatchewan, Canada, the daughter of Scott and Delilah (Thompson) Baker. She lived on her family's homestead near Eston until the age of 12 when her family moved to Woodburn, Oregon. She attended school in Woodburn where she graduated from high school.

Irma married Daniel Nevil on November 21, 1964. The couple lived and farmed in the Willamette Valley until moving to Stanfield in 1971. They operated a pig farm in Stanfield for several years. Irma later worked as an office manager for several Eastern Oregon auto dealerships until retiring.

Irma had a strong faith in God and was a member of Stanfield Baptist Church for 40 years. She opened her heart and her home to countless people who needed help. She had a unending love and commitment to her family. After retiring, she traveled extensively and enjoyed her many trips to Alaska with her good friend Dorothy. She also volunteered with many organizations including Stanfield Planning Commission, Stanfield Library Board and Good Shepherd Auxiliary.

Nevil

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Daniel; brothers Dale and Gordon; and an infant baby brother.

She is survived by her children Scott and wife Alicia Nevil of Hermiston, David and wife Heather Nevil of Stanfield, Dani and husband Roger Smith of Hermiston, Tom and wife Heather Baumgartner, and Carolann Jensen; brother Raymond Baker and his wife Lorraine of Wichita Falls, Texas; sisters-in-law Pam Baker of Woodburn and Phyllis Meyers of Canby; 15 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Viewing will be held on Wednesday evening from 3 to 7 p.m. at Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. Funeral Services are planned for 10 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 10, at Stanfield Baptist Church, 310 N.E. Wheeler Avenue, Stanfield, Oregon. Burial will follow in Pleasant View Cemetery near Stanfield.

Family suggests memorial donations in Irma's memory to: Solid Rock Bible Camp, 36251 Solid Rock Road #1, Soldotna, Alaska 99669
