

OBITUARIES

Clarene Oleta Hample

Eugene

February 7, 1935 - October 4, 2017

On Oct. 4, 2017, our beloved and beautiful mother, Clarene Oleta Hample, passed at home from this life to the next. Although we are saddened and will miss her, angels in heaven are welcoming her!

Hample

Clarene was born Feb. 7, 1935, in the small town of Hep-ner, Oregon. She was the third of four daughters born to Herman and Dolly Carr (Allstott): Delores, Leota, Clarene, and Sharon. She was raised in the town of Hermiston, Oregon, along with her three sisters and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

After graduating from Hermiston High in 1953, she was working at a soda bar, where she met a dashing young Air Force serviceman in uniform, Fred Hample, from Eugene, Oregon. They were soon married on Jan. 21, 1955, at United Lutheran Church in Eugene.

Clarene and Fred moved into a cozy house near Tugman Park, and raised four tow-headed children: Darcie, Diane, Brent, and Eric. Many fond family memories revolved around the neighborhood and friends of Ferry Street. Camping, fishing, and spending days at Fern Ridge Lake – or ocean salmon fishing out of the Siuslaw River – were other favorite family activities.

Clarene graduated from real estate school, got her state license, and sold real estate for five years. She also spent many years managing investment properties.

She was active in the Council for the Aged, was on the board of Christian Family Services, and served as president of the Re-Active Club of Eugene. She was a volunteer for Senior Services, FISH, and the Hospital Guild.

She was a long-time member of Central Lutheran Church and active in various ministries including Stephen Ministries, Altar Guild, and prayer groups.

She and Fred enjoyed many days antiquing, fishing, camping, reading, traveling, golfing and adoring their seven grandchildren. Clarene collected tea strainers, candlesticks, and sending ideas into Pluggers comic strip (and some were published).

She enjoyed traveling and had an open mind to other cultures and people. Places she traveled to include Hong Kong, Athens, Rome, Macau, Geneva, Jamaica, Salzburg, Edinburgh, London, Hawaii, and Mexico.

Clarene and Fred celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary in 2011 before he passed away later that year. Clarene is survived by her sister, Sharon Wall of Plano, Texas; daughter Darcie McNally of Guerneville, California; daughter Diane Caisse of Eugene, Oregon; son Brent Hample (wife Monica) of Eugene; son Eric Hample of Eugene; and her seven grandchildren Justin, Nick, Kait, Alex, David, Rachel, and Deborah.

A memorial service will be held at Central Lutheran Church, 1857 Potter Street, Eugene, Oregon, at 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, memorial donations be made in her name to her favorite charities: Volunteers in Medicine, Central Lutheran Church, and India Partners (www.IndiaPartners.org).

Roberta Kay Riker

Umatilla

September 1, 1948 - October 1, 2017

Roberta, 69, passed into the loving hands of the Lord Sunday, Oct. 1, 2017, with her loving husband and family members by her side at the Hospice House in Kennewick, Washington. Multiple issues took her life. She contracted Valley Fever, a serious fungal infection, in Arizona nine years ago, spending two weeks in hospital there. It abated for awhile but came back a few months ago, which led to meningitis and finally several strokes that in totality were too much to overcome.

Roberta was born Sept. 1, 1948, at St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, to Roy and Rosalee Smith. Kay lived most of her life in Pendleton, graduated Pendleton High, attended Blue Mountain CC and graduated nursing school at Walla Walla CC as a registered nurse. She worked at several hospitals and had to retire early due to advanced rheumatoid arthritis.

Kay was an accomplished horsewoman. She really knew how to talk horse. She helped with 4-H activities and trained many horses. She greatly enjoyed trail rides with many friends as well as doing very well in competitive trail riding events. She was involved with the Pioneer Humane Society for many years and helped rescue 18 horses to our place in Pendleton and placed all in good homes.

She had varied interests that included artistic pursuits in painting, pottery and sewing arts, quilting and needlepoint. She spent many hours organizing genealogy records. She won many awards for her entries in the Umatilla County Fair. She designed two houses we had built. She enjoyed travel and spending winters in Arizona.

Kay married David in Pendleton Oct. 2, 1977. She almost made it to our 40th anniversary. She had the usual redhead attitude, which made for some interesting conversations.

Kay is survived by husband David; sister Rochelle Peck; brothers Royce Smith and Robert Smith; several nephews and nieces; and good friend Cher Walker, who was so caring of Kay. Silver, our loving little schnauzer, will miss her greatly.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, 2017, at the Crossroads Community Church, 350 N. Sherman St., Stanfield OR 97875.

Family suggests donations in lieu of flowers to either SalvationArmyUsa.org or PAWS/Pioneer Humane Society, 517 S.E. Third St., Pendleton, OR 97801.
